We are born into this world concealed within a box created by our parents and surrounded by our environment. As we grow we are wrapped with borrowed ideas and concepts of both peers and elders. Then we, ourselves, tie the bow (put on the finishing touches), and place the nametag on the newly formed package and present ourselves to the world as an individual. But with all the gifts that make us unique still inside.

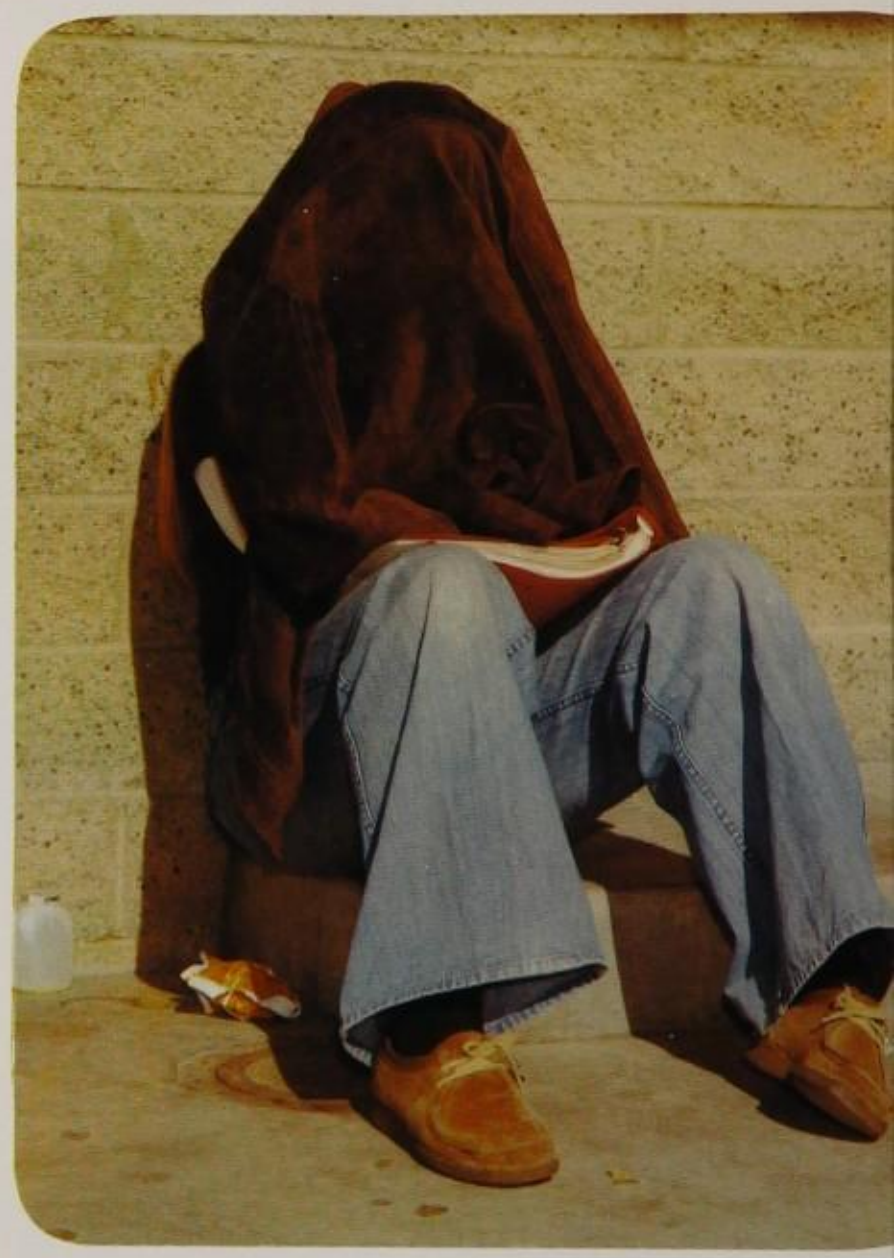
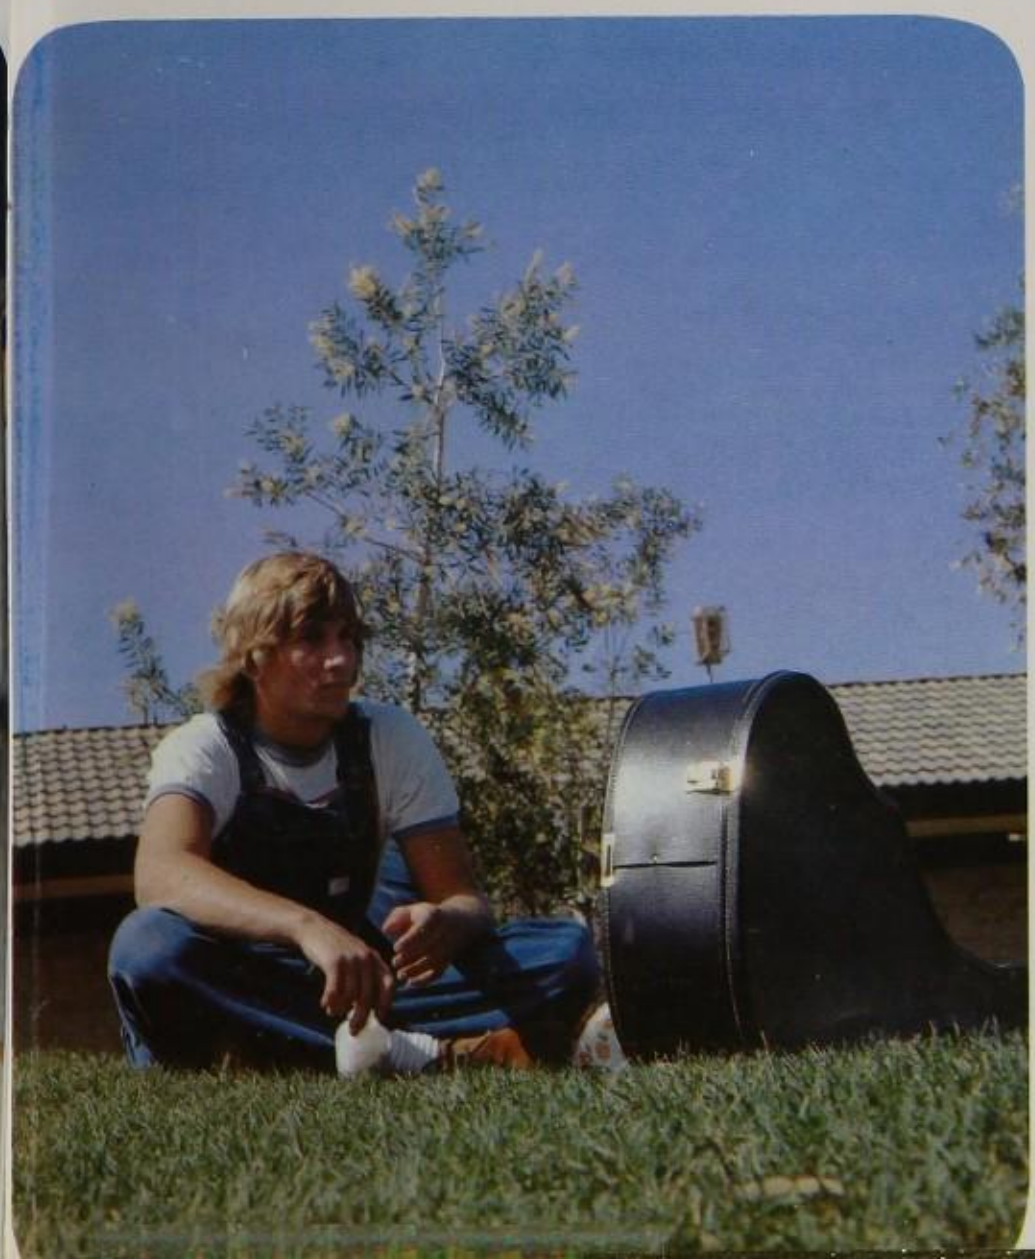
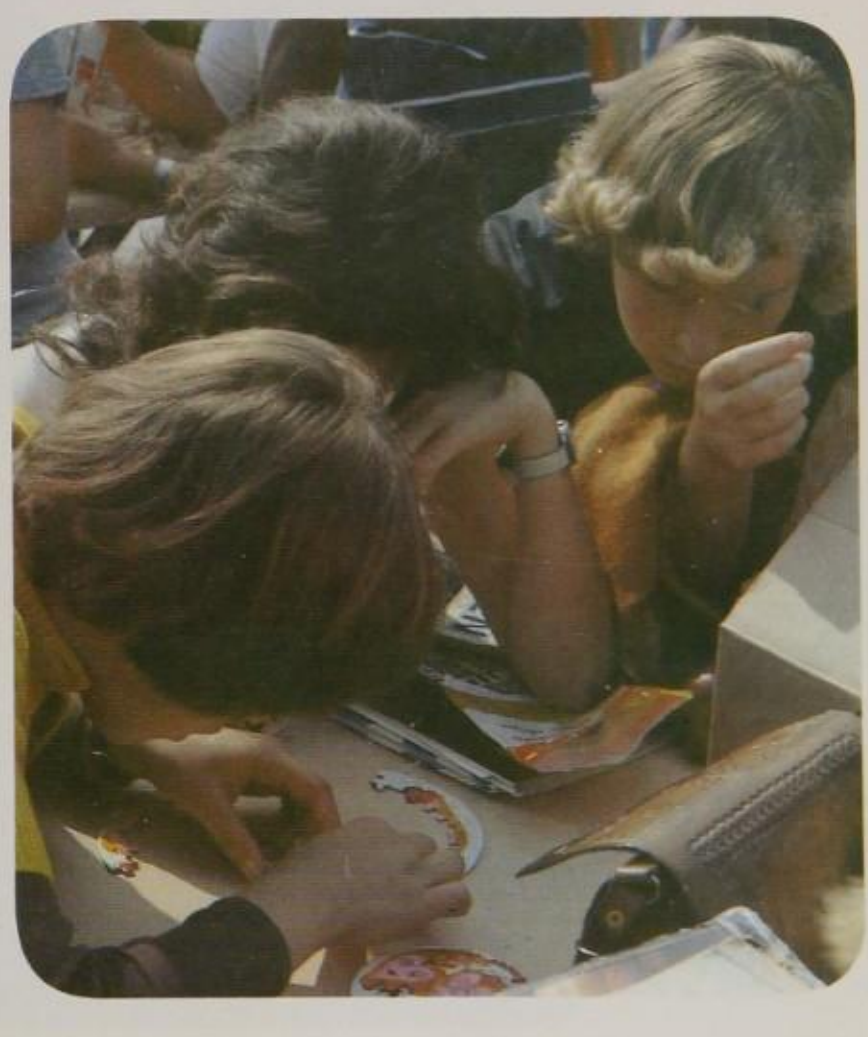
Often we find ourselves restless, eager to expand from limitations we have had placed upon us by either ourselves or others. And when we start to search deep into ourselves we discover treasures that we were possibly never aware of.

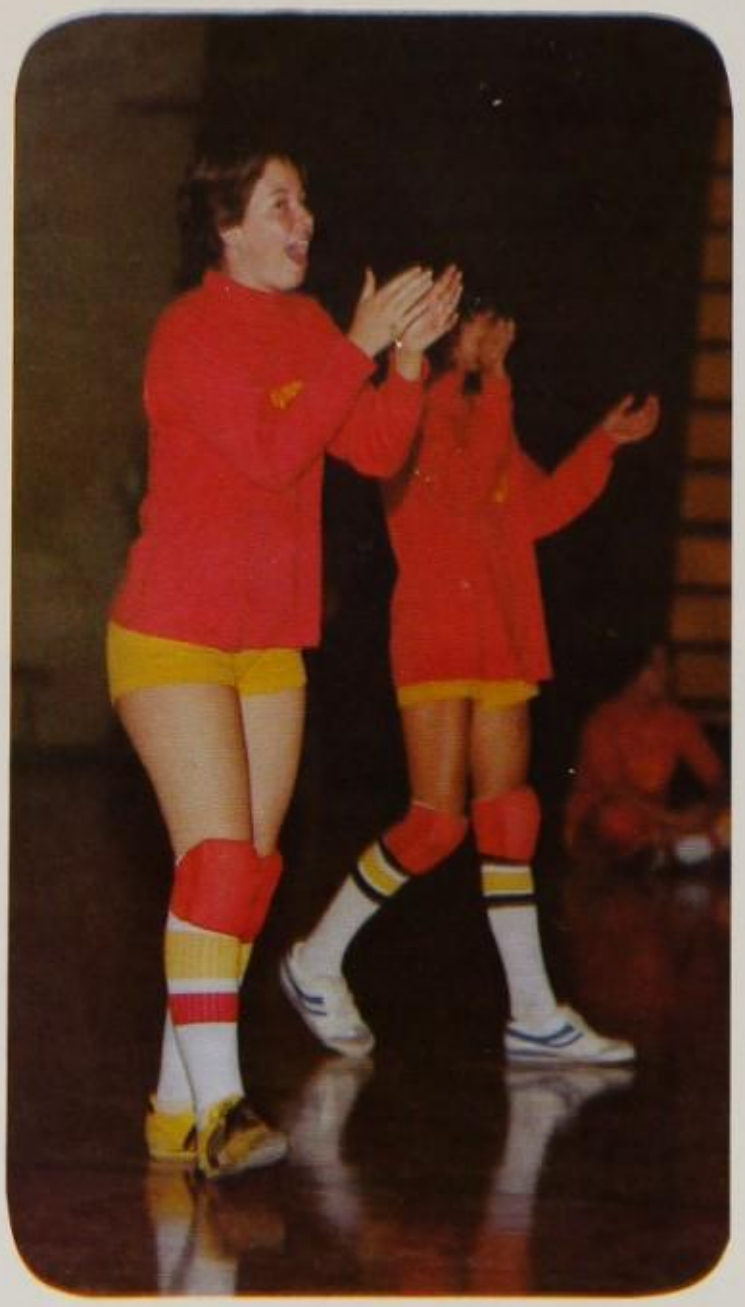






Soon we find ability to use our minds to learn, talent for expression of music and art, physical aptitude for athletics and sports, our hearts to love and our love for friendship.

Not until after we have crawled do we learn to walk. After we have taken the first step in pursuing these gifts we can then learn to have confidence, to believe in ourselves as developing individuals.



Bernie,

So a nice, cute & really sweet person. Im glad that I got a chance to meet you even though it wasnt too long ago. Take care of yourself and good luck with everything you do. I hope we can remain friends now and in the years to come. Keep in touch Love Always

Desireé

Now as you turn these pages you will see these gifts in a simple smile, a successful play, a game victory, a group of friends talking together . . . and perhaps you will also see yourself and how you grew, learned, matured . . .

Pepsters Provide Punch at Lunch

Noontime Rallies Built Spirits for Grids, Cagers

Power to Cerritos, right on! Posters, rallies and assemblies all helped the Pep Squad in establishing one of the most spirited years in our school's history. During football season there was a pep rally each week, either in the quad or the gym. Posters such as "Ambush the Pioneers," or "Can the Gahr-bage," could be seen the week before the upcoming game. Filling the gym at lunch rallies, skits were performed to enthusiastic crowds, and cries of "We're number one!" could be heard throughout the campus. The Homecoming rally was the best received of the year. Just think, Steve Johnson was named Downey High's first annual Homecoming Queen. Steve, alias "Stephanie," won hands down over "Rhonda" Cruz, "Donna" Nielson, "Phylis" Wilson and "Tammy Lou" (hairy legs) Hernandez. The "buffed" yell- and songleaders were the studly escorts of the five beauties.

1.) CHS Champs? Well, maybe next year. 2.) If Colleen Magrann enjoyed hugging Cindy Barry this much, what in the world would she do if a fella squeezed her? 3.) The 1976-77 Pep Squad announced the new squad for 1977-78 on the rally platform at lunch. 4.) It took green thumbs for Camille Kwaak and Sherri Page to grow these carnations given to new Pep Squad selections. That's why Sherri kept only her fingers in her mouth. Who wants a green mouth? 5.) Lorraine Kakazu posed as a mighty Cerritos Don player as Lori Gray helped heighten the effect. 6.) The Homecoming rally produced a lot of laughter as Steve Johnson, Don Neilsen, Tom Hernandez, Phil Wilson, and Rod Cruz dressed up as Downey Homecoming Queens. 7.) Would Don Neilsen, escorted by Michelle Heatherton, be your choice for Homecoming Queen? 8.) Michelle Gomez deftly pinned a complimentary carnation to Tony Schneider. The referee wouldn't allow him to wear it during matches, however. 9.) Working one of their tricky and wonderful routines was this year's crackerjack yell leaders. 10.) Spirit was the goal of this rally in the quad. 11.) Almost overcome with happiness was Lori Gray. Likewise, Angela Shumsky was barely able to control herself.

Multicultural Morsels Made Magnificent Munching

Food, fun, and entertainment were highlighted by the both International Dinner and the first annual Burger Bash. The delectable aroma of McDonald's hamburgers could be smelled on the CHS campus when the Burger Bash, sponsored by the Cabinet, rolled around. The object was to see which class representative could stuff his face with the most McDonald's burgers in five minutes. John Cabori, who ate eleven burgers, won a portable radio and was presented with a twenty-five dollar check for the junior class treasury for eating the most hamburgers. Something for everybody was the motto of the International Dinner. Dishes were served originating from countries such as France, Germany, Mexico, and Spain. Besides a great meal, people who attended the feast were also presented with a magic act, the traditional can-can, a skit about Toulouse Lautrec, and other stupendous acts. Thanks to the participation of the classes and students of the International Language Department, both events were a delicious success.

1.) Toulouse Lautrec was a girl. At least in the Cerritos skit as Sherie Poulson, with the beard, could just barely resist the seductive Jeannene Przyblyski. 2.) Who could resist the charm of the islands as served up, hula style, by Virginia Sur and Luzviminda Patam. 3.) An outstanding job of Mexican dancing, with elaborate dresses, was performed by a pair of dazzling senoritas, Loretta Gonzales and Gladys Dominguez. 4.) "Oh it was nothing," said John Cabori as he gulped down a coke to keep from choking after winning the Burger Bash. 5.) "I will never eat another hamburger as long as I live," said Tim Reynolds. 6.) Tim Davies provided continental flavor to the International Dinner as he sang "Michelle" in French. Zipporah Pasetes was on the guitar. 7.) "Don't worry sir, it's only your hand," said Craig Wasserman as he performed a death defying magic act. 8.) This trio of foreign language dingbats (Lee Coduti, Larry Majam, and Robert Rodriguez) caused absolutely no ladies to faint away with desire as they kicked away a weak rendition of the can-can. 9.) Lynn Hanki got ready to chop suey.

Kooky Komedy Kracks-up Krowd

Thespians Present First Contemporary Farce

You don't have to be a Spring Chicken to hatch an egg! Mrs. Edith Lambert proved that statement true at the ripe old age of 43, when she announced to her husband Harry, "I'm going to have a baby." You can image the upset this caused as her married daughter Kate just couldn't get used to the idea of another member in the family. Edith tried to make her feel better by recalling to Kate how much she always wanted a baby brother or sister. To this Kate cried out, "But that was 24 years ago!" "Never Too Late" was the first venture into the world of contemporary domestic farce for the Cerritos High Drama Department. Members of the cast sparked some touches of their own spontaneous humor, in addition to playwright Summer Arthur Long's, which included Edith (Valerie Rogers) running out of the house with half a flower vase hanging out of her suitcase; Harry, (Dwyane Epstein) going after her, stumbled out the door with Kate's coat on instead of his own; and, to the cast not very amusing, their stage manager cut the lights ten minutes before a scene was over. Mr. Dennis Cox, Director of Dramatics, commented on how well he thought the cast worked with the farce and was able to go beyond the standard classics and explore contemporary drama. Special congratulations and recognition went to Kathy McDougall for her exceptional performance as Kate, for which she received "Best Performer" of "Never Too Late."

1.) Would a man of Harry Lambert's (Dwayne Epstein) integrity put a toilet in the mayor's front yard? The mayor (Keith Oliver) sure thought so. 2.) Daughter Kate (Kathy McDougall) was so shocked at what mom (Valerie Rogers) was saying that she spared dad's feelings by muffling his ears. 3.) The Cast: Keith Oliver, Mayor Crane; John De Laura, Policeman; Karhy McDougall, Kate; Bob Peterson, Charlie; Valerie Rogers, Edith Lambert; Dwyane Epstein, Harry Lambert; Kenny Enriquez, Dr. James Kimbrough; Dena Mobley, Grace Kimbrough; Clay Weatherfield, Mr. Foley; Kory Mikesell, Oscar; and Steve Nicolas, Contractor. 4.) Trying to hide their concern from their inebriated husbands, the girls prepared to whisk upstairs. 5.) Spoiled Kate found that housework didn't agree with her as noted by her quick-witted husband (Bob Peterson). 6.) Family relations improved with a mother, son-in-law cha-cha-cha. 7.) The fellows' hearing was so impaired by cooking sherry that they never noticed eavesdropping Kate's sneeze. 8.) Keith Olivier as the Mayor became indignant with his neighbors. 9.) "Work, work, work. That's all I've been doing," whined Kate. 10.) "Sure — I fit fine," said Charlie. Grace (Dena Mobley) was kind of wondering what a bathtub was doing in the front room. 11.) Matters came to a head with the men slugging it out. There were no blows landed, but plenty of spills.

Christmas Card Carolers Chirp Charmingly; Teachers Teasingly Trample Troubled Teens

Holiday Cheer Sung For 50¢; Faculty Basketballers Nip Varsity

Christmas was in the air along with the sound of music, Cerritos style, as the choir went from class to class singing appropriate sounds of Yuletide joy. Students bought the Singing Christmas Cards which were performed in various small groups by choir members. Songs were designated by the purchasers to be sung to friends/teachers of their choice at 50¢ a tune. Choices included "White Christmas," "You're a Mean One Mr. Grinch," "Rudolph," "I'm Gettin' Nothin' for Christmas," and "Up on the House Top." Though the weather was 70° outside the singers were dressed for the snow. Along with lyrics the sometimes-embarrassed seranadees were also treated to special pantomime motions. The total effect caused many to swoon and faint away with delight. It was fun.

The fearless, fighting, faculty five-some fought frantically to win its second victory over the varsity basketball team in the fifth annual meeting pitting the oldsters vs. the youngsters. The older, heavier guys came out of the game suprisingly successful, winning the contest by a slim margin, 68-67. Using savvy combined with several tons of talent, the oldies but not moldies toyed with their junior counterparts the first half, building up a 42-22 lead. However, coach Ian Desborough, greatly distressed at the varsity's effort, pursuaded the professors (through many tears combined with sad and icky faces) to lighten up on the little guys the second half. So with the same compassion always shown at grade time, the teachers relented and gave the varsity a little slack, allowing them to get teasingly close the second half. But not close enough. In the preliminary game the Gym Rats beat the faculty B team.

5.) Mr. Gary Smuts forgot he wasn't allowed five steps to make a lay-up. 6.) Showing his ability to hold a basketball in one hand was Mr. Dennis McReynolds. "It's not that hard if you're on a good strength program," he explained. 7.) Pajamas, teddy bears, and lollipops, were special effects used by carolers, Brenda Payne, Heidi Overleese, and Kathy Nies. 8.) Trying to become invisible was Joanne Turigliatto while a Christmas Carol was being sung to her.

Rochelle's Site for Semi-Formal Christmas Dance

Steve and Michelle Reign Over Holiday Activities

New dresses, boyfriends, corsages, tuxes, boutonnieres. What do these have in common? The Quiet Cannon, Rascals, Charlie Browns, The Reef. How do these relate? They were all a special part of this year's Christmas Dance, "Memories of Love." The semi-formal dance was held on December 21 at Rochelle's Restaurant in Long Beach, which was among the many nice places for couples to dine before the band Tobias struck up the music. Pictures, dancing and socializing were main events of the evening. To add to the night Michelle Gomez was crowned Snow Queen and Steve Johnson, Snow King.

1. Snow Queen Michelle Gomez and Snow King Steve Johnson posed together after their coronation. 2. Exhausted from dancing, Theresa Lara and Abe Perez took time out to relax. 3. Kathy Nies and David Stover enjoyed the night together. 4. Chris Saglin and Tanya Arnold wondered if the dance was really worth it. 5. Were the administration really chaperoning the dancers or their drinks? 6. Joy Byrd and date found time to talk about future plans.

Follies Fabulously Funny (for Fruitball Faculty)

Fonzie and the Gang; Gong Show

The Gong Show and some of the worst acts imaginable were featured when Cerritos High School kicked off its third annual Faculty Follies on March 23, 1977. The acts included in the Gong Show were "Mean Salsa," played by Ms. Mary Zaragosa, "The Dance of the Seven Veils" done by Ms. Carol Stein, Ms. Joann Yabrof played "Das Jolly German" and The Stylettes, who won unanimously over the other acts, consisting of Ms. Colleen Rogers, Ms. Stein, and Ms. Yabrof. The second act, which won the Act of the Evening was Ms. Mickey Davis' portrayal of the helpful columnist "Dear Gabby." Some helpful advice included "How to tell your best friend to brush his green teeth," and "How to keep your 60-year-old husband away from younger women." The next act was "Sappy Days," featuring a scene at the Malt Shop from the television show "Happy Days," where Joannie Cunningham was being picked on by Clyde Zepeda. Fonzie saved her from the bully and Joannie fell in love with Fonzie. He then set her up with his nephew Spike. Mr. Charles Ledbetter played Fonzie, Mr. Jim Chapel was Richie, Potsie was played by Mr. Tom McNally, Joannie was Ms. Stein, Malph was played by Ms. Yabrof, Monta Armstrong played Spike, and Mr. Ian Desborough played Clyde. The final act was the whole cast singing "That's Entertainment." Which was also up for vote.

1.) Doing night work as a belly dancer, Ms. Carol Stein displayed her exotic talents. 2.) Taking her bows gracefully was Ms. Joanne Yabrof as Das Jolly German. 3.) Looking like your everyday housewives, Ms. Carol Stein, Ms. Yabrof and Ms. Colleen Rogers sang "I Am Woman." 4.) Trying to imitate Chuck Barris from the Gong Show, Monta Armstrong succeeded in telling his own second rate jokes. 5.) Ms. Rosalyn Goodrich, as hostess of the Gong Show, introduced the acts. 6.) When Ms. Zaragosa plopped onto Mr. Fonzie Ledbetter's lap, what could he say but, "Aaaay!" 7.) "Well that's the silliest thing I've ever heard," said Ms. Mickey Davis while reading letters to Dear Gabby. 8.) Mr. Jim Chapel and Mr. Tom McNally waited anxiously for Mr. McReynolds's vote. To gong or not to gong.

Fifties Fever

2 Decades Ago . . .

Things started cookin' when Shelly Mash won the Hula Hoop Contest. From then on the CHS campus was reelin' and rockin', strollin' and boppin' during Fifties Week. Along with the traditional Bubble Gum Blowing Contest, dancing in the quad, and Friday night 50's Dance were crowd-catching events such as Car Stuffing in a '62 Rambler, and a Roller-Skate Relay, which left the mob gasping with excitement.

1.) Kathy Nies showed just how loose her hips were in the Hula Hoop Contest, where she whirled, swirled and swiveled the hoop around her body. 2.) "One for the money, two for the show, three to get ready and four to . . ." Mylee Robertson, Robin Fries, Janna Fagaragan and Kathy Seifert waited intensely for the starting call, "GO" in the Roller Skate Relay, that weaved in and out the quad. 3.) "Come on guys, right, left, then hop, hop, hop," said Ed Morrissey as he led a bunch of bunnies at the 50's Dance. 4.) 'Mmmm, I'd say 2 1/16, give or take a couple of one-sixteenths," thought Mike Dolan as he measured a bubble in the Bubble Gum Blowing Contest. 5.) The Volkswagen (actually a '62 Rambler) Stuffing Contest between classes only lasted for one group. After 20 freshmen were stuffed in the vehicle, the car was heard to have honked, "I'm pooped." 6.) Roller Derby look-alikes Terry and Robin Fries took their bows after receiving first place prize, a silver skate. Mylee Robertson and Tanya Arnold (hidden behind R. Fries) came in second, but felt they deserved the trophy. 7.) "Randy Economy," strained Mari Jo Klumper, "could we be disqualified for doing it this way?" 8.) "Tony, look, there are a couple of spit wads hanging from the ceiling," exclaimed Annette Payne. "You should have seen the ones that dropped down here," replied Tony Schneider. 9.) David Navarette and Colleen Magrann performed their way from the 50's Dance to the 1977 Junior-Senior Prom, as the winners in the dance contest. 10.) Sherry Guerrero's bubble measured 6½ inches before it deflated in front of her eyes. 11.) Anne Liewer just couldn't keep her hands off of Troy O'Neil, alias Elvis, at the Friday night dance.

Earthquake Entrants in Eating Ecstacy

Spirit Week High in Calories, Fun

If you were on a diet during Spirit Week your will power was put to an extreme test. Not only were most of the activities centered around fattening foods, but they were more original than preceding years. The first event of the week was the Obstacle Course Race sponsored by the FBLA. It was a challenge between the students and teachers to see who would end up with the most water, after holding a glass of water while completing several strenuous obstacles during a race. Of all the events, the Earthquake-athon, sponsored by the class of 78, was voted the best event. The object of the contest was to see who could gobble down fastest the Swenson's Special, which consisted of eight large scoops of ice cream, bananas, whipped cream, cherries, and lots of toppings. Terry Sprague gluttoned his way to victory and close behind was Tim Reynolds. International Club won the title of the most Spirited Club by sponsoring events such as the Chili Pepper Eating Contest, Root Beer Chug-a-lug, the Snail Race, and the Chopstick Contest. New events this year included the tug-of-war, sponsored by the American Indian Club; decorating the quad; and the Golden Dons rescuing the damsels in distress, which were the queen candidates, supported by the Class of '77; "The Jail," operated by the Home Economics Club; and "Mr. Touchdown," won by Steve Johnson and presented by Drill Team on a penny-a-vote basis.

1.) A crowd stood around Billy Ho and Alan Reed as they stacked sugar cubes on top of each other, one of the activities sponsored by the International Club. 2.) Probably not the neatest eater at Cerritos High, but one of the fastest was Tim Reynolds who came in second in the Earthquake-athon. 3.) As Lee Henson, Tony Romero, and Frank Espinoza stared at the snails they were careful not to blink or they would have missed them moving. 4.) Downey's voluptuous homecoming queens, portrayed by Steve Johnson, Don Nielson, Phil Wilson, Tom Hernandez, and Rod Cruz, were the hit of the homecoming assemblies. American's Sweethearts??? 5.) Abby Ewen denied that she burped A & W gas for two hours following her participation in the root beer chug-a-lug. 6.) Mr. Jim Chapel didn't mind being smacked in the face with a cream pie in the Top Banana Contest. The part that broke his heart was when they cleaned some off with a towel before he could eat it off.

Pupils Plop Profs With Puffy Pies

Powder Puff Game, V-Ball, Wagon Push Hilite Week

1.) Drill Team added to the excitement by participating in the Spirit March. 2.) Joyce Butler finished the Obstacle Course by inhaling a piece of pie. 3.) Quarterback, Renee Menier, took the center snap in the powder puff game as Karen Carr protected her from the right guard. 4.) Annette Payne was the proudest guy around with that big blond beauty, Steve Johnson, on his arm. Such a queen. Such a couple. 5.) Now that's what the school likes to see; cheerleaders Michelle Gomez, Lori Gray, and Angela Shumsky as they really are. Strange. 6.) Just think, with a mere ten cents you could lock someone in jail for five minutes at lunch during Spirit Week. 7.) Male cheerleaders Chris Kargas, Richard Konishi, Greg Williams, Tony Ramondo, and Steve Lopez supported the senior girls in the powder puff game by cheering them on. 8.) Mickey Davis showed her ability to leap through the tires, yet she forgot about the cup of water. 9.) Years of weight lifting failed to pay off for Anita Allen who tugged for the Thespians in a losing cause against the American Indians. 10.) Hefties like Sam Apodaca helped pave the way to victory for the winning tug team, the American Indian Club. Advisor Butch Manzo swore the event wasn't fixed as he stuffed greenbacks into his American buffalo wallet.

The student body's favorite teachers were again awarded with a cream pie in the face in the Top Banana Contest. Those with donations of $10 or more in their cans were Monta Armstrong, Rich Caldwell, Jim Chapel, Dennis Cox, Dennis McReynolds, Gary Nouskajian, Carol Stein and Wayne Wakamoto. The week-long volleyball tournament ended up in a victory for the cross country team as they defeated the United Together Club. A Golden Plunger was awarded to the Band as members plunged their way to victory in the Band Wagon Push. The annual Powder puff football game did not end up in a victory for the seniors nor for the juniors. The score ended up in a tie, 6-6, even though both sides claimed moral victories.

Splendid Slate of Spirit Specials

Football Game Climaxed Events

1.) At the conclusion of the obstacle course Miss Davis badly frightened the cameraman with her chocolate cream pie look. 2.) Being careful not to spill a drop of water, Mary Cianciousi cautiously advanced to the rubber tire event. 3.) Just look at the squinting expression of Mr. Nouskajian; but even better, notice the eager look on Glen Kinoshita's face. 4.) As Fred Varela kicked the deciding field goal of the homecoming game, Coach Wright looked anxiously and the team held hands in a show of unity. 5.) With eyes watering and mouth burning, Tom Bracuto continued to eat the chili peppers with hesitation. 6.) Paying the price for being so doggone popular, Miss Carol Stein collected meringue from her eye while Paul Wright held the instruments of deviltry. 7.) If CHS would have gotten Downey they would have won league. 8.) Not only was the Band Wagon Push thrilling, it was also extremely dangerous. But helping to overcome the danger with a crash helmet was Van Wodlington, pushed by David Navarette. Behind them were Bernadette Bracuto, Debbie Wilson, Janice Parks, and Dana Pinheiro. 9.) YGAD participated in Spirit Week by selling snow cones in the quad, in order to raise money for their club.

Student Spirit in the Streets

Frances Gonzales Reigns as Third Homecoming Queen

The second annual Spirit March was slightly delayed when one of the queen candidates was slightly delayed by her escort. Not stood up, just delayed. When the marchers finally sprung into action the band filled the air with music, cheerleaders began to lead chants, and club members contributed by yelling along as they wound their way from the parking lot to Artesia High School, primarily by way of Norwalk Blvd.

The crowd in the stands watched the queens circle the field and then be escorted across the football field by fathers. As the five candidates stood there, the crowd became silent and anticipation filled the air. Then Frances Gonzales was announced as Cerritos High School's 1976-77 Homecoming Queen. Vicki Lorenco, last year's queen, crowned Frances and fireworks burst in the November night sky. Her court included: Danne Conard, Evelyn Grimm, Lori Ivory, and Dena Mobley.

1.) Lori Ivory was a pretty figure as she waved to the fans in the stands. 2.) Dena Mobley was escorted by her brother-in-law. 3.) The 1976-77 Homecoming Court: Evelyn Grimm, Lori Ivory, Dannee Connard, Dena Mobley. 4.) Frances Gonazales, the 1976-77 Homecoming Queen. 5.) Frances Gonzales beamed prettily as she shared the moment with her father. 6.) With father on her arm, Dannee Connard was presented her half dozen roses by Kathy McDougall and Terri Taylor. 7.) Evelyn Grimm's feelings matched her smile as she made the pre-game circuit around the field. 8.) In one of the happiest moments of her life, Frances Gonzales smiled happily as she walked off the football field.

Clubbers Convene in Quad

Ski, Sail, Indians, Top Displays

Just imagine yourself a freshman again. You're in the quad at lunchtime in October. Your head spins from the excitement, Wild (sort of) Indians, a real live sailboat, a real, not alive mannequin showing ski techniques and equipment, a giant star-searching telescope — and so many other things. Wow! It's Club Day! Want to join? Other representatives included the Thespians, Rod and Reel, International, FBLA, and Key Club. There were several new clubs this year including the Surfing, Backpacking, Horticulure, and Ichiban Clubs.

1.) Jon Howland and Moses Amaya held up a sign advertising the joys of Key Club membership. 2.) The Thespians attracted a big crowd as Lori Smith and Kurt Weidmen performed a pantomine in the quad. 3.) Bernadette Bracuto (president), Belinda Torrez seated, Steve Lopez, left, Tom Hernandez, right, added to the attractions of the Indian Club. 4.) The huge sailboat in the quad pulled in members for the Sailing Club. 5.) International Club was counting its members before lunch was even over. 6.) Ski Club members encouraged students to join by displaying ski equipment and a snow-ready mannequin.

Music seems to be one of the most important aspects in a teen-ager's life. Continually there is music. At school in the quad, in the car, at home — the radio is never given a rest. And so . . . radio stations boom . . . each with a gimmick of their own. KNX-FM the mellow sound, KEZY the noonies, KMET the mighty met, KIIS the KIIS-offs, the new 10-Q, KLOS rockin' stereo. Many vocalists have influenced our lives this year with their music, and as we look back on song titles and artists from this part of time in our lives, surely they will bring back many memories. The biggest hits and artists over the past year have been: "You'll Never Find" by Lou Rawls, "Don't Go Breakin' My Heart" and "Sorry Seems to be the Hardest Word" by Elton John, "Show Me the Way" and "Do You Feel Like I Do" by Peter Frampton, "Play That Funky Music" by Wild Cherry, "Tonight's the Night" and "The First Cut Is the Deepest" by Rod Stewart, "I Never Cry" and "You and Me" by Alice Cooper, "If You Leave Me Now" by Chicago, "Beth" by Kiss, "Shake Your Bootie" and "I'm Your Boogie Man" by K.C. and the Sunshine Band, "New Kid in Town," "Hotel California," and "Life in the Fast Lane" by the Eagles, "Torn Between Two Lovers" by Mary McGregger, "Find Me Somebody to Love," "You're My Best Friend," and "Bohemian Rhapsody" by Queen, "Enjoy Yourself" by the Jacksons, "Disco Dazz" by Brick, "It's Over," "Low Down," "Ledo Shuffle," "What Can I Say," and "Harbor Lights" by Boz Scaggs, "Night Moves" by Bob Segar, "Car Wash" by Rolls Royce, "Hotline" by the Sylvers, "'Year of the Cat" by Al Stewart, "You're a Rich Girl" by Hall and Oates, "Dancing Queen" by Abba, "I Like Dreamin' " by Kenny Nowlin, "Don't Give Up on Us Baby" by David Soul, "Maybe I'm Amazed" by Paul McCartney and Wings, "Things We Do for Love" by 10cc, "Isn't She Lovely," "Sir Duke," and "I Wish" by Stevie Wonder, "Walk This Way" by Aero-Smith, "Fly Like an Eagle" by the Steve Miller Band, "Evergreen" by Barbara Streisand, "You Make Me Feel Like Dancin'," and "When I Need Love" by Leo Sayer, "I've Got Love on My Mind" by Natlie Cole, "Carry On" by Kansas, "More Than a Feelin' " by Boston, "You Oughta be Havin' Fun" by Tower of Power, and "Disco Lucy" by Rich Brother Robbin.

Party Poopers Prohibited at Prom

Newporter Inn Scene For 1977'S "Feelings"

"Feelings" was the theme for the 1977 Jr.-Sr. Prom. And many happy feelings will be remembered in the years to come by those who attended. The prom seemed to be the big event everyone waits for and no one was disappointed as on June 11 the guys put on their tuxes and the girls their formals for a formal evening of fun and fashion at the Newporter Inn in Newport Beach. The music from the band August signaled the dance floor to fill with a whirl of colors and the newest in tux styles as some 260 couples shared the "Feelings" of one of high school's special event — the prom.

1.) Alfred Lopez was completely charmed by Anne Liewer's dissertation concerning the Alaska pipeline. The romantic rascal. 2.) Prom Queen Candidates from left to right were: Janice Hatanaka, Jackie White, Dannee Connard, Lori Ivory, Lorraine Kakazu, Colleen Magrann, Valerie Castelo, Annette Payne. 3.) Rocking and Rolling to the sounds of August were Cindy Lindquist and Greg Xitco. Greg admirably performed The Big Apple, and later captivated fans with the Funky Monkey. 4.) Kim Megerle enjoyed herself just dancing with her partner. 5.) Checking over their prom bid Benny Chavez and Cindy Barry couldn't remember the name of the place they had dinner. But they knew they had it by the gravy stains on his vest. 6.) Swooning to the music and also to her escort, Dave Navarrete, was Colleen Magrann. 7.) Camille Kwaak and Joe Hendrix talked with friends at their table. 8.) Liz Gonzales and her escort sat this dance out, trading tired feet for tired bottoms. 9.) Dannee Connard found smooth-talking George Martinez a laugh a step. 10.) Lori Ivory was selected 1977 Prom Queen. 11.) Mike Stratton's date explained that she wasn't laughing at the way he danced but at his jokes. 12.) Sheri Poulson and date Mark Veazie made a straw for two. Why?

Graduates Glad to Gain Gateway toward Goals

Nostalgia, Firecrackers, Beach Ball All Combine to Make the Moment

For many it was the final of the last minute rushes for a CHS school event. It topped the rushes of making it to class on time, going to speed lines before all the BBQ sandwiches were gone, turning in A-B projects, getting to athletic, band or drill team practices . . .; graduation was the crowning glory. June 14 began with an 8:30 a.m. rehearsal. Much to the seniors' relief, practice was well-regulated and they were off in a couple of hours. The only big problem now, besides the commencement itself, was what to do between now and then. Some went out for lunch, some cooled off at the beach or in a pool, some just kind of relaxed for the night's event, while others took care of last minute obligations. The time finally came. At 7:30 p.m. a chain of graduates began filing out of the stands onto the field. Class President Nancy O'Connor led some 5,000 people in the audience in the flag salute, followed by Lourdes Carandang with the invocation. Reminiscence of school years passed through the minds of not only seniors, but parents as well while the tune "Memories" was performed by the band. Graduation messages were given by James Liao and Jeanne Przyblyski, in which both emphasized not what they have learned in school through teachers and classes, but through friends and experiences. Mr. Charles Ledbetter presented the Class of 1977 to Board Member Mrs. Diane Xitco. Graduation roll

1.) "I made it!" exclaimed Patty McFall. 2.) James Liao, the only senior to graduate with a 4.0 GPA, delivered a graduation message. 3.) Pam Landis tried to keep the joy inside after receiving her diploma, but a smile managed to escape. 4.) A friend gave Terri Burrows a congratulation hug. 5.) Newly-grad, Agatha McCaleb and Arnetra Talbert had their pictures taken after the commencement, for a lasting memory. 6.) Bill Pier, Liz Palmeri and Terri Obando had three different opinions of the graduation ceremony. 7.) Valerie Castelo was congratulated by Mr. Ray Rodriguez. 8.) "I'm smiling, because look at what I finally got," replied Camelyar Haynes.

glided by, but was often interrupted by a scream of happiness upon receiving a diploma, firecrackers, and even a beachball being vollied amongst the graduating class. The seniors then flipped their tassle from the left side to the right, as if to say, "We are now leaving that part of our lives behind and are entering a new side of life." A cascade of ping pong balls painted with the school colors were then thrown by the celebrants. Many became sentimental, thought "What the heck? It's the last time anyways," and raised their finger into the air while the Alma Mater was played. The recession closed the ceremonies and a flood of friends and relatives ran frantically onto the field to find, greet and congratulate the graduates. There were cries of joy, laughter, smiles, and tears. But no matter how any of them felt, their four years of high school life were over.

Assorted Activities and Assemblies

Featuring: People Passin' by

Two events which highlighted the year for the CHS seniors were Ditch Day and Grad Nite. On May 23, many seniors gathered together to make it a memorable day at Catalina. Grad Nite at Disneyland proved to be one of the most successful events for this year's seniors. For the rest of the CHS students many enjoyable assemblies and activities were held: the group Parable, sponsored by the one way club; Mrs. Trevino's fashion show; Richard Gomez from Teen Challenge; and various contests brought the students of Cerritos High closer together.

1.) CHS seniors enjoyed their trip to Catalina on Ditch Day. 2.) Vanessa Quinn was embarrassed to be caught without her shoes on. 3.) As Miss Teenage California, Brigitte Mareik competed for the national title in Florida. 4.) Curtis Morita vainly tried to win the earthquake-a-thon. 5.) Paul Sliwa couldn't wait to leave campus after a long hard day. 6.) Richard Gomez from Teen Challenge talked with Dena Mobley

Many "Oohs" and "Aahs" could be heard throughout the Little Theatre as Sherry Feltman modeled this beautiful prom dress during Mrs. Trevino's fashion show. 10.) Debbie Seifert and Carol Keller almost ran over Rachael Reyes during a practice run for the roller skating contest. 11.) LeRoy Gutierrez charmed the junior girls with his irresistible smile. 12.) Julio Pereira found that reading a book while lounging in a bean bag chair was a terrific way to relax.

Professor Passes Pauper as Princess

Pygmalion CHS's Most Elaborate Performance

A common flowergirl from a London gutter known as Eliza Doolittle turned into a real lady? Does it all sound so impossible? In the play "Pygmalion" presented by the CHS Drama Department, Professor Henry Higgins intended to prove that it was not so impossible and made a bet with his gentleman-friend, Colonel Pickering, that he would pass this "squashed cabbage leaf" off as a dutchess in six months. The two men set off to do this by teaching Eliza "phonetics," or in other words proper English, instead of those depressing and disgusting Cockney sounds that she continuously uttered — referred to by Professor Higgins as "kerbstone English only fit for the gutter."

At the end of six months it was time to see if Higgins and Pickering's hard work and training had proved successful. At an Embassy reception in London Eliza did actually pass as a princess, no longer a "delicously low . . . horribly dirty girl" picked up from the gutter, but a quite respectable young lady capable of holding her own in "proper society."

The presentation of "Pygmalion" was given a great amount of credit for being, as Mr. Dennis Cox, Director of Dramatics put it, "The most elaborate technical and acting performance in my time at CHS." Costumes were another accomplishment for the Drama Department, since many were made by the students themselves, unlike any others of past performances, most of which were rented. Outstanding performances were presented by Chris Rutkowski and Anita Allen, who had the lead roles as Professor Higgins and Eliza Doolittle.

1.) Professor Henry Higgins sat frustrated and helpless listening to Eliza rattling on at his mother's "at-home" day. 2.) During an argument between Higgins and Eliza she asked him to remove her rented jewels because she did not want to be accused of stealing. 3.) Eliza told a story of her poor aunt who died of influenza. 4. Eliza greeted Mrs. Higgins with a, "How do you do?" 5.) Eliza pouted when Higgins made fun of her Cockney accent. 6.) Professor Higgins escorted Eliza, who thought about the evening ahead of her as a dutchess, at the Embassy reception. 7.) The flowergirl excitedly exclaimed, "Aaaaaaaaaa-ow-ohh!" when Higgins threw her a handful of money. 8.) Mr. Doolittle (Eliza's father) listened to Higgins explain the disappearance of his daughter. 9.) Higgins explained to Eliza that he would miss her if she decided to leave his home. 10.) Eliza poured out her sorrow to Freddy. 11.) Doolittle accepted five pounds for his daughter from Higgins. 12.) Eliza begged Mrs. Pearce not to give her a bath. She had never had one before. 13.) Mrs. Higgins scolded her son and Colonel Pickering for the mean way they had treated Eliza.

Crazy Categories Cause Colorful Commotion

Juniors Win 2nd Almost Anything Went Contest

Laughs, spills, falls, and giggles were just part of the second annual Almost Anything Went contest put on by the ASB Cabinet, May 10 through May 12. Students from the senior, junior, sophomore, and freshman classes got together to compete in several different off-beat events. The first day got under way with the Gunny Sack Race, which started off with one person with one leg in a bag and ended up with four people, each with one leg in the bag. The same day also featured the Boardwalk. Five people with their feet attached to boards showed their coordination (or uncoordination in some cases) by all trying to move the same foot at the same time in a race against the clock. Due to bad weather on the second day the activities were cut short. The only event held was the Superman Contest, which showed the juniors' superior ability to get dressed while leaping tall buildings, being more powerful than locomotives, and faster than speeding bullets. To start off the third day a football kicking competition was staged. There was one complication, however. All three ballhandlers were blindfolded and allowed only the help of their trusty coach to guide them. The second event was an obstacle course race consisting of crouching under tables, an agility test, a high jump, and hurdling, all while carrying a medicine ball. The end results showed the juniors victorious. But the end scores did not matter because everyone had a good time.

1.) Even though Mike Dilts was over six foot he was able to zip under the tables at lightning speed for the senior class. 2.) Trying to break the sound barrier, Marty Raymondo ran with all his might to the finish line. 3.) A human pyramid was built by the sophomore class as Mr. Dennis McReynolds timed them to see how long it would take them to fall down. 4.) Agility, coordination, and skill were used by Dave Telles who moved slightly faster than a glacier. 5.) Manuel Bojorquez was so uncoordinated that he probably couldn't find the kicking tee without the blindfold and Colleen Magrann's assistance. 6.) Jumping hurdles is no easy task, especially with a medicine ball, as Grace Oyzon soon found out. 7.) Dave Tibbs, pretending to be a talent scout from the Los Angeles Rams, observed Margie Chavez' kicking ability. She pursuaded her toe to meet the ball but there's no immediate threat of her turning pro. 8.) Miguel Chavez flipped over Almost Anything Went. 9. Three potatoes — Cindy Meyers, Annette Payne, and Mike Dilts — tried to fit into the potato sack. 10.) Freshman class participants and rooters came away enthusiastically after hearing the results. 11.) Patti Pigati, Margie Chavez, Barbara Colmer and George Yezbak, were all too cheap to rent their own skis so they shared Craig McFarland's.

Delegates Tossed and Tooted

If you were standing outside the Little Theatre on March 1 you would have heard horns tooting, whistles blowing and yelling from inside. You might have thought there were crazies inside. But there weren't. Except some who were. In fact, there were two delegate representatives from each homeroom who had broken into groups, each of which represented a certain state of the union and wore costumes pertaining to the state and its origin. Included were hillbillies, lumberjacks, Hawaiians, Indians, and pirates. After a candidate was announced by the nominating council, the candidates had three minutes speaking time to discuss their plans or views. After each candidate spoke, delegates voted and the senior representatives announced how many yesses and noes there were in their group for each candidate. Finally the clerks tallied the votes and announced who the two candidates, for each office, on the ballot would be.

The first year drama students proudly presented the annual evening of one acts, which included "Louder, I Can't Hear You" and "I'm a Fool." The first was a comedy about a typical lady, played by Marti Rips, who had bad communication with her family. She started acting hysterical towards her children (played by Debbie Michaelson, Rob Unitan, and Jenny Murphy) and ended up going to a psychiatrist, played by Ben Paz, who was crazier than she. The second act "I'm a Fool," dealt with a young stable hand, portrayed by Kelton Tobler, who pretended to be a "real gentleman." He met a man, played by Robert Crews, who was accompanied by his fiance Liz Poullet and another lady, Annette Laviola, at the race track. He likes Annette a lot and gives her a false name and address. The girl has to leave the city and promises to write. After she leaves he then realizes the letters will never reach him.

1.) One peanut farmer got himself elected recently, but he probably knew how to spell "salute." 2.) "Hey, lemmee tell you this one about the farmer's son and the traveling saleswoman before we get started here," chuckled chairperson Terri Taylor. 3.) It doesn't play to flirt with a fool as Tracey Bohn and Sherry O'Hara were to find out later. 4.) "No thanks, I don't smoke," said Robert Crews as Kelton Tobler offered him a cigar. 5.) Carrie Smith threatened Bennie Chavez with the information that she would eat her trumpet if he didn't vote the way she wanted him to. 6.) Terri Obando showed freshman delegates Shawn Brosamer and friends a diagram of the Little Theatre, pointing out the location of the mens' room. 7.) Marti Rips comforted psychiatrist Ben Paz as he broke out in tears. 8.) Debbie Michaelson, Rob Unitan, and Jenny Murphy constantly gave their mother, played by Marti Rips, a hard time. 9.) Signs played a prominant role in giving candidates publicity within the convention. 10.) Dena Mobley and Clerks Lee Couditi, Nancy O'Connor, and Annette Payne tallied the votes of all the candidates running for office.

Five Band Groups Play to Full House

Sounds of the Cerritos High Band were in the air as people filled the Little Theatre to see the annual Winter Concert. After a short warm-up, the Concert Band came out and started the night off right with "Variation Overture." Stage Band II got things rockin' with its rendition of John Fogarty's "Proud Mary" and finished with "Just Jazz — Just Rock — Just Music." Stage Band I was then ready to keep things going with the popular Lennon and McCartney song, "Got to Get You Into My Life." The beautiful sounds of Symphonic Winds mellowed things out as they performed "Chorale and Alleluia" by Hanson and "English Suite." The highlight of the evening in the opinion of director Gary Nouskajian was combined bands' performance of their traditional "Elsa's Procession to the Cathedral," which put a nice touch to the concert's conclusion.

Musical Madness Makes Many Merry

Fiddler Plays Highly Entertaining Tune

Three standing ovations capped the last performance of the villagers from Anatevka, Russia. On June 2, 3, and 4 the Broadway musical, "Fiddler on the Roof," visited the Little Theatre. In Anatevka life is simple, guided by an unending faith in God and ever-present traditions. The story centers around the lives of a poor dairyman, Tevye, his wife, Golde, and their five daughters. From the heart of village life come the well-known popular classics "Matchmaker, Matchmaker," "If I Were a Rich Man," "Sunrise, Sunset," and the proud opening number "Tradition."

The Cast . . . Tevye . . . Rob Unitan; Golde . . . Nancy Arseneault; Tzietel . . . Kathy McDougall; Hodel . . . Cindy Perez; Chava . . . Kathy Nies; Bielke . . . Gail McInture; Shprintze . . . 1.) Tzietel cried when her father Tevye told her she had to marry the butcher Lazar Wolf. 2.) Tevye woke up in the middle of the night choking because of a nightmare. 3.) Village men toasted to Lazar Wolf during the "Drink to Life" number. 4.) Soon to be son-in-law Lazar Wolf danced with Tevye. 5.) Tevye performed one of the classic numbers, "If I Were a Rich Man." 6.) Russians danced to celebrate the announcement of an engagement. 7.) The family got together for the blessing of Sabbath candles. 8.) Bottle dancers livened-up the wedding. 9.) A Russian almost lost his shirt while dancing. 10.) Golde cried during the wedding of her daughter, Tzietel to Lazar Wolf.

Bucking Burros Bruise Bottoms

Jackasses All Over the Floor in Student Win

After waiting many anticipated days Donkey Basketball finally arrived. The vying teams consisted of faculty and student members. The first thing the participants had to learn was how to get up on their donkeys and to stay there. It was faculty against students but for the teachers they might well have just stayed home, considering all the bucking and pitfalls, and the slow dribbling up and down the court. The students, with superior donkeymanship, prevailed with a 34-32 win.

Many assemblies were set up by the ASB throughout the year for the enjoyment of the student body. Events ranged from sports to rock groups. Sponsored by the KEZY Noonies was the band Eulogy, which came and performed in the gym. For the athletically inclined George Lehmann explained how to become better coordinated in any sport you play, especially his specialty — basketball. The former pro player gave tips on shooting and exhibited some new Pro Ked equipment.

Mr. Monta Armstrong and Mrs. Roselyn Goodrich went out to greet the limousine that delivered their riding buddies. 4.) Stretching as far as her burro would let her, Alison Smith tried to reach the ball. 5.) Eulogy's keyboardist also backed the lunch-time group up vocally. 6.) "Balance . . . one foot in front of the other," explained George Lehman in a dynamic demonstration. 7.) George Lehman never seemded to miss as he demonstrated shooting. 8.) "Help! I'm too far south! This donkey's run out of seat," shrieked Brian Stover who was looking for a way to relocate further north in a hurry. 9.) Trying his best to make a mad dash to the basket, Chris Kargas urged on his long-eared friend. 10.) Waiting for his cue to smash the cymbals was the Eulogy drummer, a well-muscled lad who forgot to wear a shirt. 11.) Along with Eulogy came big amplifiers, speakers, and a big audience which filled the gym. 12.) The lead singer and guitar player harmonized.

Heavenly Humming by Happy Harmonizers

Starting with a serious madrigal setting, the Chorale opened the fourth annual Choir Spring Concert with many madrigals sung around a candlelit table. Taken from the 18th century music styles, many different types of madrigals were performed, ranging from "Fa Una Canzona" to "All Spring in All Her Glory." To change the setting, Dons Chorus and Concert Choir sang numbers such as "Annie's Song" and "School Days." The Chorale then went back 20 years, to perform "Lollipop," a well-known song from the 50's. To "Mahogany" and "Reach for the Brass Ring" slides were shown of different choir members and activities. To finish the program, Chorale, Choir and Dons Chorus combined to sing "Spread Joy."

1.) Tim Davies performed a solo, accompanied by Glen Kinoshita on the guitar. 2.) Dons Chorus and Concert Choir harmonized together in the Winter Concert. 3.) Mr. Bill O'Connor directed the Winter Concert. 4.) Dons Concert. 5.) Chorale. 6.) Concert Choir. 7.) Angela Foster, Roberta Eighmy, Annette Laviola, Theresa Stratton and Pam Erny sang prettier than mockingbirds in the Winter event.

Grids Boot CIF Chance

Missed Field Goal the Difference

A 31-yard field goal attempt that sailed just wide of the crossbars proved to be an omen that the 1976 CHS varsity football team would fall short of its hopes and dreams. Thirteen inches possibly separated the Dons from their first San Gabriel Valley League championship and a chance for a berth in this season's CIF 3-A playoffs. Coach Tom Wright's gridders ended with a 6-3 season and a 3-2 league record which put them in a three-way tie for second place with Lynwood (6-3) and Downey (4-5) in conference. The Knights and Vikings, both victors over CHS, were selected along with league champ Warren to represent the SGVL in the playoffs. Cerritos turned in its best football season in the school's history, breaking a total of 49 individual and team records. Offensive coordinators Vern Brock, Vince La Rosa and Micky Cureton saw their offense accumulate 2,821 total yards during the campaign, shattering the previous record. La Rosa's linemen consistently opened big holes enabling senior fullback Steve Johnson to rush for a record 832 yards. Complementing Johnson in the backfield was senior tailback Randy Gonzales who gained well over 600 yards on the ground and had a 7.1 rushing average to lead the squad.

The man at the controls, senior QB Phil Wilson, found that when opposing teams keyed on Johnson and Gonzales he could option and keep the ball himself. He gained a total of 424 yards rushing. In the air Wilson completed 57.8 per cent of his passes for a total of 734 yards. His number one receiver was senior tight end Jay Binchi who caught 24 tosses for 323 yards and four TD passes. On defense the Dons' leading tackler was senior linebacker Joe Martin with 58 unassisted tackles and 32 assists. Behind Martin was senior defensive rover Phil McPherson with 38 unassisted and 20 assisted, and junior linebacker Larry Majam, 34 unassisted and 18 assisted. In the secondary junior defensive back Marcus Mallet led the squad with four intercepted passes followed by senior Tom Hernandez with three. The team with the most selection of all-league players sat home this playoff season — Cerritos High. The Dons had ten gridders selected to the 1976 All San Gabriel Valley League squad. They were: Phil Wilson — 1st team offensive back, also awarded co-players of the year in SGVL; Steve Johnson — 1st team offensive back; Jay Binchi — 1st team receiver; Fred Varela — 1st team kicker; Phil McPherson — 1st team defensive back; Don Nielson — 1st team defensive line; Bart Pranger — 2nd team offensive line; Don Harbert — 2nd team linebacker; Mauro Morales — 2nd team defensive end; and Joe Martin — 2nd team linebacker.

1.) Seniors Mark Stoneking and Phil Wilson raised their fingers during the Alma Mater. 2.) The Cerritos Crunch was administered by rover Phil McPherson and defensive end Mauro Morales. 3.) Fullback Steve Johnson bulled over an Artesia player. 4.) Ken Fukushima listened to head coach Tom Wright point out a mistake. 5.) Kicker Fred Varela added another point during this contest. 6.) QB Phil Wilson prepared to hand-off to Steve Johnson as Benny Chavez carried out the option. 7.) Kicking off was senior Phil Wilson as Larry Majam picked up speed. 8.) Artesia's QB found trouble in defensive tackle Vern Vandersluis's heavy pass rush.

Wilson Awarded Co-Player of Year

Kicking off the season the Dons found themselves facing 4-A power California High. After the first half of play Cal had built a 20-0 lead. With 24 more minutes to play the Dons started to scratch their way back as on the first play from scrimmage fullback Steve Johnson galloped away untouched 63 yards to make it 20-7. When the final gun sounded Cal High had hung on for a 34-20 victory. Johnson ended the game with 106 yards rushing on five carries. Game two was a big one as CHS went up against rival Artesia High.

The Dons, unlike the previous week, got the offense rolling as the team compiled a total 380 yards rushing. Randy Gonzales led the attack, running for 131 yards and two TD's. Johnson turned in another fine evening as he tallied 121 yards rushing and he also put two TD's across the line. The final score: CHS 34 — AHS 13. The Dons faced 4-A Long Beach Jordan in game three and muscled out a 23-13 victory. The Dons, leading 14-7 with three seconds to go before half, called on kicker Fred Varela who calmly booted a record field goal of 45 yards to boost the Dons to a 17-7 halftime lead. Jay Binchi later caught a Wilson TD pass to preserve the win. Johnson ran for 100 yards, making it his third consecutive plus-100 game. Looking for victory number three, the Dons faced Mountain View. The offense exploded for 423 yards as Johnson passed the century mark again as he rushed for 150 yards and two TD's. He was followed by Gonzales with 112 yards. The defense came up with a fine evening as it scored its first shutout of the season. The final score showed the Dons ahead 21-0. CHS came into league with a 3-1 record and now faced powerful Lynwood. The Dons found themselves ahead 14-7 after three periods, but when the final gun sounded it was Lynwood who pulled out a 25-14 win. Offensively the Dons played well as Wilson went nine for 17 passing for 100 yards. Tim Hearron caught four of those aerials for 42 yards and one TD. Johnson turned in 111 yards rushing, giving him 588 yards after five games. Warren High was next for Cerritos in a game that turned into one of the most exciting of the season. The Dons scored first, but Warren quickly retaliated, making it 7-7. Wilson (11-15 passing) then hit Phil McPherson for a TD, making it 14-7. Warren again came back, scoring before the half, but failed to convert the extra point, making the halftime score 14-13. Third quarter action found no scoring as both defenses stiffened. Now with 4:23 left to play Warren drove down to the Dons' 17 yard line, but had to settle for a field goal, making the score 16-14 in favor of the Bears. Keeping cool, CHS calmly started their own drive. With only 23 seconds on the clock the Dons called time-out and kicker Fred Varela was summoned onto the field.

1.) Phil McPherson intercepted a Downey pass during a disappointing 14-13 loss. 2.) Coming onto the field after halftime, the Dons broke through the Homecoming sign. 3.) Steve Johnson took time out for a water break. 4.) 1976-77 Varsity Football Team. 5.) Joe Martin and Greg Williams discussed the defensive plans with Coach Tom Wright. 6.) Marcus Mallet defended his Warren opponent. 7.) Phil Wilson and Louis Sarinana brought down their foe. 8.) Possibly celebrating a TD, the Dons on the sidelines rejoiced.

From thirty-one yards out Varela booted the ball through the uprights and Cerritos had won, 17-16. Homecoming found CHS against the Downey Vikings. It was another thriller as again the game came down to the leg of Varela. Twenty-seven seconds was all that was left with the Vikings ahead 14-13. This time a 27 yard field goal attempt sailed inches wide and DHS had the victory. Johnson and Gonzales both turned in fine games as both scored TD's while Johnson edged Gonzales in rushing 101-94 yards. Game eight found CHS facing arch rival Gahr. It was the 'Dons' biggest night offensively as they totaled a school record high of 471 yards. It was also a big night for Wilson as he rushed for 126 yards and threw for another 184. Tight end Jay Binchi caught nine passes for 132 yards and two TD's. The final score found Big Blue with 20 but the Big Black and Gold had 35. The final game of the season found the Dons traveling to Dominguez where, on a cold night, Cerritos gained a 31-14 victory. McPherson and Binchi caught three passes each to spark win no. six.

Harriers Turn In 4-3 X-Country Mark

Racin' Rael Rushes to Rapid Record

Opening up with a disappointing one point loss to St. Anthony, the varsity cross country team bounced back to record a 4-3 season. Louie Rael was named the team's most valuable runner as the sophomore registered two wins and three second place finishes on the year. Highlights of the '76-'77 campaign included a victory over 4-A power Long Beach Poly and Rael's new record of 10:15 for the 2.2 mile course. Season standouts were three-year letterman Manuel Bojorquez, junior Dennis Markham and sophomore Chris Baclig.

Weary Wrestlers: "We Wuz Wrobbed"

Picked for High Finish, Matmen Fade to 8-6-1

Pre-season rating charts placed the 1976-77 varsity wrestling team in the number three spot in CIF but a below-expectation 8-6-1 season record and a 3-2 third place SGVL league finish destroyed such lofty ambitions. Coach Tom Drulias found his squad in a rebuilding year as several key figures from last season's title squad did not report out. The Dons however showed promising talent throughout the season as they stayed above the .500 mark on the year. Sophomore Scott Schnider, 95 lbs., ended the season with a 19-9-1 and a fourth place finish in the Beverly Hills Tourney while Derek Yasanska, 123, Russell Payne, 136, and Jeff Rhodes, 148, all turned in successful seasons along with senior Robert Shaw who ended with a 12-3-1 tally en route to finishing first in league finals. Copping the Dons MVP award for the '77 campaign was Ed Delgado. Delgado, a 141 lbs. senior, placed first in the league finals and went on to finish third in CIF. He also was the first matman in the ABC Unified School District to ever reach the state finals, held this year in Sacramento. His record overall at CHS was an outstanding 36-7 mark, highlighted by this campaign's 14-1 record.

Dumped By Downey, Dons Dethroned

Delgado Advances to State Finals

CHS opened league with an impressive 65-6 win over the Knights of Lynwood. The Don grapplers went wild as a total of eight pins were registered. The next match was against rival Big Blue, Gahr, and again the Dons fared well. Pinning five of their 13 opponents, CHS scored a lopsided 52-15 victory and looked unstoppable. Warren was match number three and the Big Black bruisers were unfortunately reduced to black and blue bruises.

After winning their first two individual matches, CHS ran into abrupt trouble, losing nine out of the final ten, giving the Bears a 45-14 win. Dominguez came to town and CHS bounced back with a 36-26 victory. League match number six found the Dons with still an outside chance for the title with Downey on tap. CHS, down 29-24 going into the heavyweights, had to forfeit due to the lack of a competitor, giving the Vikings a 35-24 win and the SGVL title.

1.) Jamie Marquez prepared to take-down the enemy. 2.) Russell Payne broke-down his Dominguez opponent. 3.) Strategically toying with his foe, Greg Williams prepared a one point take-down. 4.) Gaining control of his Warren opponent was Rick Chavez. 5.) Robert Shaw attempted to break away for two points. 6.) Scott Schneider took command during the match. 7.) League champion Robert Shaw and his adversary were at a standoff. 8.) Muscling his Warren rival, Gary Kurashige gained a victory. 9.) Jeff Rhodes had his foe in a near-fall position. 10.) Things didn't seem to be in favor of the Dons as the team and coaches looked on.

Cagers Lose Last Five

1.) All-Conference selection Mike Dilts started a power move against Gahr. 2.) Sophomore Chris Jackson flicked his wrist and watched the results. 3.) Warren was the 3A's top-rated squad until plays like this one by Jeff Wiggins knocked off the Bears. 4.) "Men, I suggest we get out there and score more baskets than the enemy!" cried out Coach Desborough. 5.) "The way I figure it, the floor's smooth and the ball's round," thought Phil McPherson. "Therefore, I will dribble ahead hastily without watching the aforementioned spheroid." 6.) Showing how the fastbreak was supposed to work was Roger Lodge as Gahr gave up the uncontested hoop. 7.) Sandwiched between a pair of Lynwood defenders, Rick Knoishi hit the open man. 8.) Billed as "The Pistol," Roger Lodge pulled the trigger. 9.) Phil Wilson battled a Gladiator for a loose ball. 10.) Charging or blocking? Mark Smith fed off in mid-air as Dan Mullane of Warren tried to establish position.

Cinderella turned to rags at midnight but the CHS basketball team waited until the second round of SGVL play to duplicate that maneuver. Had league lasted only one round, the cagers would have owned the title, and a berth in the CIF playoffs. But the last five games were as tough on the Dons as wall sitting was on Humpty Dumpty. Fairy tales have happy endings but this one doesn't as each of the last round games ended in defeat, four of the contests decided by a total of six points and each game ending with shots that had they gone would have either won or tied those contests. Coach Ian Desborough's squad finished 4-6 in league and 11-15 overall. It was in the Cerritos Kiwanis Tournament that the Dons met their first tournament challenge, but came up empty handed as they lost to a weak Glenn club 63-61 and also to highly rated Bellflower, 65-59. They did manage a win in the first game of the tourney 72-43 against Bell Gardens. The highlight of the pre-league season came in the 16-team Cabrillo Tournament as the Dons grabbed third place with Mark Smith and Roger Lodge both named to the All-Tournament Team. "Pistol" Lodge also shot away the Tournament Free Throw Contest Title, an added attraction to the tourney. The Dons shocked everybody in the second game of the tourney when they beat Santa Barbara, a 4-A power who at the time was rated third in CIF. But when the Cerritos Dons met the Dominguez Dons in the league opener, they found the going a little tough, and dropped the decision 52-50, as a last second shot failed for the losers. Lodge led all scores with 24. Things looked bad for Cerritos as they then had to battle top-rated Downey. And the fans got more than they bargained for as they saw a see-saw battle all the way. With just seven seconds left to play the Dons found themselves one point down, 67-66, and with possession of the ball. After a Cerritos time out, playmaker Rick Konishi hit a wide open Mike Dilts who calmly layed up the game-winning bucket. Smith, 18, and Phil Wilson, 16, provided the Dons with half of their point total. Now 1-1 in league play, the Dons saw the new #1 rated team in CIF, Warren come to town. Again the hosts rose to the occasion but this time it was Jeff Wiggins' turn for hero duties as he hit two clutch free throws with just five seconds to go, providing a 72-69 victory. Lodge's 19 points didn't hurt the cause. Next on the list for the Don Machine was defending CIF champion Lynwood, who saw CHS come from behind to nip the Knights 46-42. Smith led the scoring parade with 15 points and David Sanchez helped out with eight markers coming off the bench. Now starting to roll, the courters faced Gahr and found the going as tough as expected. But when the final buzzer sounded it was Cerritos by 13, 62-49. Lodge stole the show as he hit 10 free throws down the stretch in the final quarter. So at the end of the first round of play the Dons found themselves in first place with a 4-1 mark. And then the prince turned into a frog. The beginning of the end came at Downey when the Vikes scored a controversial bucket with no time left on the clock to nip Cerritos 66-64. The Dons played in tough luck again the following Wednesday as Mark Smith missed a pair of shots as time ran out, sinking the hosts, 56-54. The script was almost the same two nights later but this time it was Jeff Wiggins missing a shot which could have won for CHS. The 12-footer wouldn't drop so Cerritos did, 51-50. The Donnies got blown out in the next game when Lynwood flexed its muscles 84-68. Cerritos' luck stayed the same — bad — in the finale with Gahr as the Black and Gold

Two Soccer Teams Combine for 6-24 Mark

The object of the sport of soccer is to score goals but this year's 1976-77 varsity soccer team had trouble doing this, thus sending the kickers to a 2-8 league record and a 2-12 season total. In 14 games coach Gerry Garcia's booters managed to score only a total of 11 goals while adversaries fired in 46.

The squad's MVP award was given to goaltender Baldemar Silva, a 10th grader who showed promising talent for upcoming campaigns. Also having a poor season were the Don JV'ers who produced a season mark of 4 wins and 12 losses. The squad's MVP award went to 10th grader Mark Laviola.

Third Tourney Title Try

Baseballers 16-7; Drop 2nd CIF Tilt

The hat trick in Cerritos baseball was completed as for the third straight year Coach Vern Brock's varsity baseball team battled its way to a CIF playoff berth but a disappointing 2-1 loss to Pomona in the second round buried their hopes of a title. The Dons had beaten Brea in the first round, 4-2. CHS finished the season 16-7 and in the second spot in league standings. With a 10-5 league mark the Dons found themselves behind Gahr, in the standings and on the field, as in each of the three games played CHS lost by one run. All League members were: First Team: Phil Wilson, pitcher; Jay Binchi, infield. Second Team: John Carroll — pitcher; Jeff Hearron, infield. Phil Wilson was also handed the SGVL's Co-MVP award. The Dons also had three players named to the All District Team in Wilson, Binchi, and Hearron. An All Southeast Area squad was selected and again the same Don Diamondmen were honored.

Why Oh Why Won't Wilson Weturn?

Asks Disappointed Coach Bugsy Brock

Finishing an outstanding career at Cerritos High was Phil Wilson who ended with a career batting average of .333. The 76-77 season saw Wilson hit .417 but during loop play he destroyed the opposition with a .467 average. Other top hitters were Jay Binchi at .362 and Jeff Hearron, .316. Wilson led the team in the hit department with 25 while Binchi and Brad Pike led the squad in RBI's with 11. In runs scored Wilson again led with 15 while Binchi followed with 12. The sack thieves on the squad were Pike and Wilson, each stealing six bases. Overall Wilson was 5-2 from the mound while John Carroll was 6-3 and Don Scott was 4-2.

At the Don banquet achievement awards were given to the outstanding individuals who excelled during this year's campaign. They were: MVP — Phil Wilson; Most Inspirational — Don Scott; Most Involved — Tim Hearron; Overall Excellence — Jay Binchi; Captain — Phil Wilson; and Best Rookie — Jeff Hearron.

Smuts' Speedmen Suddenly Slow

Track Squad Drops Final 4

Failing in a to bid again reign as champions, this year's varsity track team went from the penthouse to the outhouse as it dropped its last four meets and finished in a three way tie for fourth in the competitive San Gabriel Valley League. The Dons started the season out right with a convincing 88-34 victory over the Eagles of Glenn but found the sailing a little rougher in barely losing to the Monsoons of Mayfair, 67-60. Cerritos never let down as Coach Gary Smuts' thinclads bounced back and swept 10 of 14 events in a 79-39 rout of St. Anthony's and then the Big Don Machine kept right on rolling, this time running over Lynwood, 82-45, on the losers' home track. But championship dreams took a jolt as Big Black's next lost to Warren, 77-50, and then all but completely faded away as they lost to Downey 74-53. With a distant hope of a share of the championship still in sight the Dons met arch-rival, Gahr. The meet was up and down all afternoon, the lead exchanging hands several times, until it came to the last event, the relay, which the Dons lost — leaving them on the short end of a 64-63 score. With hope and probably their heart gone, CHS dropped the season finale to a tough Dominguez team, 69-58. The season, as disappointing as it was, was not a complete failure as many records were broken, including the 440 by Tony Prewitt, 50.8; the 880, Louie Real, 2.003; the mile relay (Prewitt, Rael, John Arceneaux, Jim Willard); mile, Manny Bojorquez, 4.41; 2-mile, Jon Howland, 10.21; and triple jump, Craig Roberts, 46-6. Roberts was named Most Valuable Varsity, Bojorquez was Most Vlauable Athlete and Eric Wilke, co-holder of the high jump mark at 6-2 along with Mike Humphrey, was labeled Most Improved.

VARSITY TENNIS SWEEPS TO TITLE; JV'S 2nd

Who had the best year? Connors, Natasie, Borg or the Cerritos varsity tennis team? Those first three, that's who. Let's face it, would you rather have around six zillion dollars or a trophy? But until they turn pro, the members of this year's Big Don Racquet Machine will have to be content with a trip to the trophy case for a look instead of to the bank for a withdrawal. The CHS netters barely broke a sweat in waltzing through league competition with a perfect 15-0 mark before being derailed by Palm Springs in the first round of CIF playoffs. "Darn rich kids," commented Coach Jim Chapel on the Palm Springers. "All they ever do is take expensive tennis lessons from Pancho Gonzales all day long." The Donnies finished the season with a 20-4 mark and produced the league's runner-up in singles in James Liao while Dan Oriza was finishing third. The duo of Vern Villapania and Billy Graham won the doubles title. Over the campaign Oriza recorded a 91% winning margin closely followed by Liao's 90%, 74% by Steve Mitchell and 70%by Louis Guarano. Villapania and Graham's 67% win clip was topped by the 72% rate turned in by David Roy and Dan Gurule.

The junior team couldn't pull off the big brother trick title but it did come down to the last match of the season in a tie for first. Then it was those bad guys across town, Gahr, that did the Dons in. Meeting with identical 13-1 records, Gahr emerged with the title. But it was the Dons who had the last laugh, because when league finals bounced around two CHS netters grabbed the first two places. Surprising Scott Nielsen grabbed first place honors even though he took a back seat to Van Wadlington who had a 92% winning percentage and was handed the team's MVP. Van finished second at league finals. Helping out Coach Bill Crane were Rito Chisolm, Tom Bracuto, Miles Goto and Armando Azareon, who all turned in fine winning percentages. Also seeing limited action for the Dons were Darin Cabalona, Craig Wasserman and Mark Weiner.

1.) James Liao proved to be one of the top singles players ever produced at Cerritos. 2.) Teaching a student on the other side of the net a lesson in humility, no doubt, was Coach Jim Chapel. No CHS Golfers to Join Tour

Lakes, sandtraps, double and triple bogies plus other natural causes all combined for this year's 1976-77 varsity golf team's poor 2-15 season. Coach Dennis McReynolds' top golfer and MVP was Richard Konishi who led all chippers in the first round of league finals but a second round slump dropped him to a sixth place finish. Other Don fairwaymen were Ed Hauchka, Pat Dennis, Darrin Yip, Brian Stover, and Chris Kargas.

Though the girls' varsity tennis team started the season on a sour note, it came back strong and completed a highly successful 9-3 season, good for second place in league. There was a new look to the SGVL this year, as only four teams participated. Despite good performances from doubles teams, the varsity netters got off to a discouraging start with two consecutive losses to Warren. Realizing that their backs were against the wall, the girls came back and crushed Downey twice by scores of 20-3 and 19-4. With an even 2-2 record, the squad was ready for Gahr. Big Blue didn't know what hit them, as Kim Patriarca and the doubles team of Aurora Hernandez and Debbie Stillinger totally dominated the match. A week later, led by Joy Oyzon, the Donettes again came through and blew Gahr out, 19-4. Spearheaded by strong doubles play, not to mention Lori Yamashita and Joy Oyzon in singles, the Don Machine rolled over Downey twice, 18-5 and 13-10. Knowing the kind of potential they had, the gals were ready for the rematch against Warren. Led again by Joy, the team outpointed the Bears 13-10. The next game would decide the outcome of the season for the CHS squad. Pressure got to the girls, as Warren prevailed at the end, 14-9. Playing now for pride, the netters again beat Downey, 17-3. The finale against Gahr was a fitting end to a good season. The varsity breezed past the Gladiators with scores of 15-8 and 18-5.

Smashing through league opponents on the way to a first-ever loop championship and undefeated season, the girls' JV tennis team served notice that the Cerritos net program should be tough next year. Led by rookie coach Bill Crane, the gal netters were only challenged once the whole season, a 12½-10 squeaker over the Warren Bears. The most convincing victory was a 22½-0.

thrashing of cross-town rival Gahr on the Dons' home court. Playing singles, Mary Gorman swept her way through league play by winning a team high, 26 matches, while Jackie Garnica, 23, and Zipporah Pasetes, 22, were close behind. In doubles play the team of Debbie Martinez and Janice Hatanaka tied with Diane Shimabukuro and Wendy Jones for the most game wins, each with 20, and the team of Sandra Durazo and Christina Castelo also contributed 12 match wins.

1.) Lori Yamashita raced to return a well-placed lob. 2.) Taking a real pretty slice at the ball, Teresa Eynon powered the little fuzzy over the net. 3.) With a two-handed forehand, varsity netter Aurora Hernandez took careful aim at an approaching shot. 4.) Miss Joy Oyzon checked to see if the ball still bounced during a break in the action. 5.) Showing fine form, Cathy Swindlehurst hit a smooth backhand. 6.) Girls' JV Tennis Team. Bottom row: Debbie Martinez, Diane Shimabukuro, Virgie Pensader. Shaky Spikers Sad After Several Scintillating Setbacks

Gal Varsity Volleyballers Last; Runner-up JV'S Show Promise

A very young team (only one senior) helped contribute to a disappointing season for the lady spikers. Only two out of a total of 14 games were won. Despite the losses, the talents of Alice Saavedra and Joanne Quibrantar were not overlooked as they were named All League. Coached by Ms. Mickey Davis, the team is hoping for a better season next year with so many experienced players returning with a year of play under their belts.

Coach Michelle Hahe and Captain Elaine Grimm led a very inexperienced JV volleyball team, composed mostly of freshmen and sophomores to a second place finish in league with an 8-2 record, two games behind unbeaten Warren. Claudia Napoli was honored as the team's MVP. Other starters were Denise King, Terri Oka, Shaundra Roberts, and Belinda Brewer. The team's success largely was responsible to the squad's ability to keep the ball in play, often forcing the other teams into defensive errors. At least two of the gals were expected to move into starting varsity spots the following season.

1.) "And now I will ace the foe," thought Cindy Lindquist as she served a rocket toward the enemy in the heat of varsity battle. 2.) Strategy was the topic as Cindy Lindquist, Debbie Wilson, and Alice Saavedra talked things over with Coach Micki Davis during a time out. 3.) Practically as fast as a speeding bullet, Denise King's one-armed save kept the ball in play. 4.) Joanne Quibrantar guided the ball toward the front line as Alice Saavedra looked on. 5.) 1976-77 Varsity Volleyball. Bottom row: Joanne Quibrantar, Isabel Nunes, Iris Sanchez. Varsity Cagers 4-12; JV'S Tough at 13-3

Never getting it together, the girls' varsity basketball team struggled through the season with a disappointing 4-12 mark. Loop play began on a promising note as the Dons swept past Lynwood in the league opener, 44-40 but hopes of a championship were lost as the gals dropped their next three decisions and were out of the race early, finishing with a 3-8 record. One bright spot was the naming of the team's leading scorer and rebounder and MVP, Nancy Vanderpool, to the All San Gabriel Valley League team. She set new varsity season records for both scoring and rebounding. If the squad's last place league finish was the bad news then the good news was that nine of the team's ten players were underclassmen and should be greatly improved by next season for Coach Sue Sims. Other leading returnees besides the 5-10 Vanderpool were second leading scorer Isabel Nunes, a sophomore, and rebound runner-up Karen Humphrey, a junior. Diane Iwami, Cindy Lindquist, Terri Oka and Debbie Wilson, all juniors, were the others who logged the most playing time this year. Pam Arnold was named the squad's Most Improved.

Playing with their hearts, the girls' JV basketball team almost went all the way as they compiled a 13-3 overall record while coming in third in the SGVL. Sweeping their pre-league opponents, the gal cagers took three heartbreaking league defeats that smashed what seemed an almost perfect season. Leading the Dons were the Saavedra sisters, Alice and Lucy, who finished as the team's first and second leading scorers while Terri Alkman paced the team in the rebounding department. Other starters were Belinda Brewer, the team's second leading rebounder, and Julie Rogers. Racking up the MVP award was Alice Saavedra, while sister Lucy picked up the Most Improved award.

1.) Battling for a loose ball, Isabel Nunes gained control. 2.) Terri Oka drove for an easy lay-up. 3.) While out maneuvering her Lynwood defender, Terri Oka picked up an assist. 4.) JV Basketball. Julie Butler, Lucy Saavedra, Alice Saavedra, Denise King, Leslie Burley, Belinda Brewer, Joanne Quibrantar. 5.) Hitting a jumper over a would-be Lynwood defender was Karen Humphrey. 6.) Putting on a full court press were Most Valuable Player Nancy Vanderpool and Cynthia Williams. 7.) Varsity Basketball. Isabel Nunes, Terri Oka, Diane Iwami, Nancy Vanderpool, Karen Humphrey, Debbie Wilson, Cynthia Williams. 8.) Faking once, Isabel Nunes got ready to go up for a jumper. 9.) Debbie Wilson.

Sputtering Softballers Slowly Sink Out of Second Spot

Varsity Finishes 3rd at 6-6; Frosh-Laden JV'S 4th, 5-5

Inconsistency plagued this year's girls' varsity softball team but the Donettes still won as many as they lost, finishing in third place in San Gabriel Valley League play. Led by team batting champ Isabel Nunes, the gals started the season out right by whipping El Dorado 13-3 but then dropped a decision to L. B. Wilson, 11-2. The 1-1 pre-season mark symbolized the up and down season to come as the gals went a frustrating 6-6 in loop play under the guidance of Coach Vince La Rosa. Backing up Nunes' .360 average was Shelley Tolman at .333 and six RBI's, Debbie Wilson at .340 and a team leading eight RBI's and Lyn Sanders, .330 with six RBI's. Included on the All League team were Wilson, Nunes, and Tolman, all first teamers, while second teamers were Sanders and pitcher Diane Rodriguez.

With a large flavoring of freshman players, including five starters, the girls' JV softball team turned in a 5-5 SGVL record and were 5-8 overall. Paced by the team's MVP, pitcher Joanne Quibrantar, the squad's highlight enroute to a fourth place league finish was a 12-1 thumping of a Warren team which was 16-0 at the time. The young diamonders, coached by former Don player Tommy Edwards, were paced by the bats of Quibrantar, catcher Renee Hernandez and first baseman Rhonda Gaylord while defensive leaders included second sacker Julie Shaw and shortstop Julie Butler, both freshmen.

1.) Showing the form that made opposing batters and umpires cringe in fright was Diane Rodriguez. 2.) Varsity Softball. Top row: Diane Rodriguez, Isabel Nunes, Aurora Hernandez, Christine Castelo, Grace Oyzon, Debbie Wilson, Edna Phelicia Miller, Coach La Rosa. Bottom row: Kim Teske, Alice Saavedra, Lisa Castillo, Elaine Grimm, Shelley Tolman, Lynn Sanders, Nancy Vanderpool. 3.) JV Softball Team. 4.) Gunning down a would-be base thief was Renee Hernandez. 5.) Grace Oyzon, alias Poison Oyzon, shows the swing that sent opposing fielders running for cover. 6.) Showing the swing that tore covers off balls was MVP Lynn Sanders. 7.) Isabel Nunes casually flagged down a deep drive to right. 8.) After lining a shot to center, Joanne Quibrantar rounded first base against Downey. 9.) Fielding a smash to third was Christine Castelo.

Maidens Managed Magic Marks in Many Meets

Led by Grimm, Roberts, Cindergals Sweep to Share of League Title

Feet were flying and records were falling as the girls' track team managed to race to a tri-SGVL championship. School marks were set almost every meet. Top efforts were turned in by senior standout Evelyn Grimm in the distance races, by freshman surprise Chandra Roberts in the jumping events, and by both relay teams. Eight girls qualified for CIF, while two of them, Roberts and Grimm, did very well, placing third and sixth in their respective events. The squad's final league record turned out to be 5-1-1 with the only loss coming at the hands of a tough Dominguez team. Coach Gary Smuts remarked that the secret to their success was that the girls worked hard all year and showed team unity and spirit. The gals toppled most school marks, led by Grimm's accomplishments in the 880 (2:24.6), mile (5:24), and two mile (11:32.4) and Roberts' feats in the long jump (18′3¾″), and high jump (5′2″). The 440 relay team of Kathy Kilmurry, Roberts, Lolita Newchurch, and Leslie Jackson turned in a sizzling time of 51:02; while the mile relay team of Kilmurry, Robin Fries, Grimm, and Jackson, raced to a 4:21 clocking. With only Grimm graduating, the Donettes should be a team to be reckoned with next year.

Joan Rice high stepped her way ahead of the crowd. 5.) Freshman Robin Fries was no doubt psyching up as she waited for her event. 6.) Flopping her way to stardom, Renee Bermudez took a few practice jumps at an early height. 7.) Doesn't it seem like all that Lolita Newchurch does on the team is sit and wait for photographers? 8.) Leslie Jackson took nice easy strides here in the straight-away of the 220. 9.) Making a two point landing in the long jump pit, Andrea Urianza was an important member of the team.

Sophs' Streak Then Stumble

Win First Five, Lost Last Four

Dreams of a championship for Coach Sam Bisogno's '76 soph football team turned into ashes as the second year Dons stormed through their first five opponents but then fizzled through the last four to finish a disappointing 1-3 in league play. The soph offense got off to an amazing start, ouscoring their first five foes 138 to 12. But in the conference games when the chips were down the Bisogno-men failed to cash in. The Dons' demolition defense, led by linebacker Todd Harbert, shut out four of its first five opponents, but league play proved to be no cakewalk, for in the way of a loop championship and undefeated season stood two other teams with unblemished records, Warren and Downey. Starting the season off right, the Dons shone in a total team effort against Cal High, highlighted by a 55 yard punt return for a touchdown by Jim Willard. The final score was 34-0. Hosting Artesia, the defense was awesome, shutting out the Pioneer guns all day in a 20-0 romp. Against Jordan, a safety by Mike Bonner proved to be a big factor in a hard-hitting game won by CHS, 16-12. In a 21-0 rout of Mountain View the defense again played well, while on offense Ken Kurator gained 94 yards in 14 carries. In the league opener against Lynwood the squad played its best game of the year. Offensively, nine individuals scored while grinding out 238 yards rushing. The defense also played fair by chalking up its fourth shut-out of the year in a 47-0 blitz.

The Warren game was a big tilt as it matched two previously undefeated teams. But key turnovers and mistakes handed the Dons their first loss of the year, 20-14. The following week against Downey, the sophs never got anything together and lost 33-7. Against arch rival Gahr the Dons played with their hearts. Coming back from a season-long injury, Dave Verhaaf gained 123 yards on 22 attempts, but again a key interception hurt the Dons, and at the final gun it was Big Blue 22, frustrated Cerritos 20. Taking on a powerful North Torrance team in the season's finale, CHS was outmatched, 22-7. Bisogno and his assistant coaches, Wayne Manzo and Richard Emard, gave the MVP award to Harbert but stated there can really be no most valuable player as in football you win and lose as a team.

Frosh Footballers Fail to Frighten Five Foes

Baby Grids Turn in 4-5 Campaign

The frosh football season wasn't all wine and roses for Coach Sam Martinez and his young men, as they turned in a 4-5 campaign mark. In a come-from-behind victory, the yearlings, led by runningback Rod Halbrook's two touchdowns, got by Cal High 21-20. In their next game the Dons were outpointed by a hard-hitting team from Artesia, 13-6. In a smiliar loss to Irvine three turnovers plagued the Martinezmen in a 6-0 loss. Now struggling, the Frosh put it all together against Mountain View by rushing for over 200 yards, and cashed in on two turnovers to even the practice slate at 2-2.

Coming into league the frosh faced a tough Lynwood squad and in a defensive struggle the rookies finished six points behind at the gun as the Knights held the Don machine scoreless, 6-0. Still looking for their first SGVL victory, the Dons outmanned a big Warren team for three and a half quarters before lightning struck in the form of a muffed punt. The Bears then took it in from 30 yards out for the score as the Baby Dons watched helplessly with precious seconds ticking away. Before they knew what happened, the Dons found themselves 0-2 in loop play. Hard work finally paid off. The following week the freshmen beat the Downey Vikings 12-6. Spearheaded by the defensive play of Ron Brown and David Finney, the underclassmen tasted their first victory in league. Now trying to salvage a .500 season, the frosh handily defeated Big Blue, 19-0. This marked the first time Gahr had been shut out this year. The offense was led by two field goals by David Waymire, and Sam Apodaca's 60 yard touchdown run.

1.) Scott Kline concentrated on Big Blue's offense from his linebacker position. 2.) The 1976 Frosh. 3.) The Dons had a little get-together at the 50 yard line, presided over by Shawn Brosamer, Mike De Matteo, and Ken Brown. 4.) Rod Halbrook left Gladiators in a cloud of dust. 5.) Quarterback David Waymire barked out the signals against Warren. 6.) Ready to meet any challenge was defensive end Tom Garcia. 7.) Going up high for the reception was receiver Shawn Brosamer in the Downey game. 8.) Runningback Rod Halbrook dashed through Downey's line to help spark the win over the Vikes.

Jittery JV's Jumped in the Jym

Dribblers 6-8 Pre-League; Win Just One in SGVL

Going through the '76-'77 pre-league season the JV Dons, at times, looked like a team with their sights set on a league title. Despite the loss of its opening game to La Serna, 48-29, the squad got good play out of frontliners Terry Holland and Charles Weber in the next outing to defeat Bellflower in overtime, 60-57. In the Brea Tourney, the Cagers embarrassed an outmanned and outgunned Anaheim team, 64-47. Weber again had a good game as he poured in 16 points. The second game in the tournament proved to be a little tougher as the squad beat Brea by 12. Forward-center Grant Walling had a fine game on the boards, while Holland singed the nets for 18 points. All-Tournament selection Holland and his mates then ran into their match in the final game as the CHS team met a finely coached and disciplined squad from Mater Dei which capitalized on numerous Don mistakes to win the crown 59-48. Doing a fair job in the Bellflower Tournament, the team got good performances from Kevin Sims and Tod Hamlett plus the other starters. Coach Wallace's team now tuned-up for its league debut. Disaster then struck, helped along by Hamlett's moving to Arizona and the sickness to several key players. Conference play showed that it took more to win than what the team could offer. The JV's went 0-9 until the final rematch against Gahr. With Captain Dennis Markham and Mike Robinson each scoring season highs of 16 points, the Dons ended a frustrating league by finally breaking into the win column.

Sophs Slide to 2nd, Frosh Finish 1st

Running and gunning its way to a trichampionship, the freshman basketball team finished the season 19-4 and will undoubtedly supply future hopefuls for upcoming varsity campaigns. Led by frosh sensation Mike Briggs, the Baby Don Machine rolled through league with an 8-2 record, including two very impressive wins over cross-town rival Gahr. Coach Dennis McReynolds' squad, the school's best frosh team ever, was also sparked by guard Craig McFarland, who contributed 22 assists, Mario Bermudez, forward Gary Gray and center David Tibbs, the team's leading rebounder with 293 boards. Breaking all scoring records, Briggs shone with 406 season points with Tibbs a not too distant second with 299 markers.

Tough competitive play proved to be the downfall of the sophomore basketball team as the Dons breezed through the pre-season with an 8-1 mark but went only 6-4, still good enough for second place, against a rough SGVL line-up. Pre-league turned out to be a cakewalk as the Don Machine, led by Matt Gardner, Jeff Hearron and leading scorer Lindsey Cooke, dominated most of the squads they faced, losing just once, to Paramount. Danny Majam, Dave Verhaaf, and Ken and Kaz Kayoda led Cerritos into league with hopes of a championship but illness to key players in the games that counted all but destroyed those hopes. As frustrating as the season was, the second-year Dons under Coach Jim Baird gained the experience they would need to play competitive basketball at the varsity level.

1.) Trying to tip in a rebound, Gary Gray was fouled by a Lynwood cager. 2.) Surrounded by Lynwood defenders, Jeff Hearron stole a pass. 3.) Dave Verhaaf leaped in anticipation of a rebound. 4.) Ron Brown executed a reverse layup against the Lynwood Knights. 5.) Winning a board battle against Lynwood, Lindsey Cooke scored for the Dons. 6.) MVP Mike Briggs displayed his patented jumper against Dominguez. 7.) Driving hard to the basket, Lindsey Cooke scored against Huntington Beach. 8.) Sophomore Basketball Team. 9.) Frosh Basketball Team. 10.) Matt Gardner contested a Huntington Beach outlet pass. 11.) Craig McFarland dribbled past his would-be Lynwood defender. 12.) Danny Majam pumped in a 15-footer against Dominguez. 13.) After eludng a Dominguez Don, Cerritos Don David Tibbs looked for an open man.

Mighty Musclers Make Mincemeat Out of Many Mousey Matmen

Junior Varsity Wrestlers Win Title With Perfect Mark

"Success" is the only word to describe the JV Wrestling team this year. Going through League with a perfect 6-0 record, only Warren and Downey gave the grapplers any sort of competition, by 28-21 and 29-26 scores. The team opened League by pounding the Lynwood Knights 51-6. Psyching up for Big Blue, they totally dominated the Gladiators 48-2 in the next outing. Warren and Bosco then fell, and the team could smell a title already. Dominguez was blitzed, and the final match was coming up. With a perfect 5-0 record, Downey was the final hurdle to an undefeated season. The Vikings at first gave the Dons a scare as they went ahead early but depth and hard work paid off as Coach Joe Quarles' JV's won their final match 29-26. Leading the team all year were freshman Rick Chavez, sophomore Mike Cabori, and junior Marty Raymondo.

Eugene Kim looked like he had his hands full. 3.) With a quick shift of his feet Ruben Zepeda was upon his competition. 4.) 138 pound "Benny" Chavez was about to take a Gladiator for a one-way ride to the mat. 5.) Heavyweight "Moose" Finney tried to gain an advantage over his Gahr opponent. 6.) With the customary winner's gesture, Robert Ruffini saw his dejected foe walk

Rollicking Runners Repeatedly Repelled Rivals

Frosh-Soph Harriers Race to Title

Another championship was added to Cerritos High's list as this year's frosh-soph cross country team ran to a San Gabriel Valley League title. Rookie coach Jeff Tribole held many grueling practices for the young men. It paid off because not only did the team have talent, it also developed depth. Among the top runners were Glenn Drye, Jaime Ortiz, and Randy Rykschroeff. Each qualified for league finals, and each placed in the top ten. Let's keep our eyes on next year's varsity team.

The frosh-soph track team must have been running the whole season with shot puts in their back pockets as they turned in a shaky 3-5 season mark, 1-4 in league. But school records were turned in by Jim Willard in the 440 (51.0); Louie Rael, 880 (2:00.4); Glenn Drye, mile (4:41.8); and by Grank Murray, Dave Verhaef, Jo Jo Sunio, and Willard in the 440 relay (45.8). Other new standards also included Rael, Willard, John Arceneaux, and Murray in the mile relay (3:32.5); Randy Rykschroeff's high jump of 5′8″; and Larry Higashi's shot put mark of 46′5¼″. The only league win came in the final meet of the long season as CHS soared past the Dominguez Dons 74-52. Individual winners at league finals included Rael with a time of 2:03.5 in the 880, Willard in the 440 with a time of 51.0 and Higashi won the shot put with his school mark.

Temporary Tigers, JV's Trip; Tumble to Third With a Thud

Quarles Nine Off to Fast Start, Then Fade

This year's JV baseball club got off to a fine start, winning six out of seven, but only nine out of 15 for third place in league. Opening against Lynwood, the Dons scored 10 runs to chase the Knights out of town. After a close loss to Warren, the players went on a five game winning streak, led by the pitching of Grant Walling and the bat of Matt Gardner. In this streak the team outscored opponents 23-11. Coming back from Easter Vacation a bit rusty, the squad got blanked by Downey 5-0, and lost to Gahr 7-1. But then came back to win a slugfest against Downey 11-8. Still in contention for a championship, the JV's again faltered, losing to Lynwood 7-3. After a split with Warren and Downey, the Dons lost to Gahr 2-1 in a hair-raiser. Fighting for third place, the diamondmen won the final game against Dominguez 6-3. Leading the team all year were MVP Matt Gardner, pitcher Grant Walling and his batterymate Vern VanderSluis.

The freshman baseball team had a disappointing season this year. They went through league with an unimpressive 2-13 record for last place. Bright spots though were found in MVP Steve White and outstanding hitter David Finny. Even though their record wasn't brilliant, the boys did have a lot of fun. After all, isn't that what baseball is all about?

1.) Taking a nice healthy cut, freshman Keith Sharon helped the Baby Dons with the bat. 2.) David Tibbs cooly went into his delivery. 3.) Heavy hitter Matt Gardner got ready in the on deck circle. 4.) 1977 JV Baseball Team. Kneeling: Danny Majam, David Fenner, Ed Hutchison, Ron Byrum, Al Garrido, Matt Gardner. Standing: Joe Quarles, Vern Vander Sluis, Joel Proost, Mike Nicholson, Charlie Carr, Grant Walling, Ron O'Farrell, Jeff Proost, Todd Theodora. 5.) Shortstop Ed Hutchison made it easily to third as base coach Ron O'Farrell looked on. 6.) Letting his infielders do the work, Grant Walling watched as Joel Proost made the play at first. 7.) Third baseman Lance Menier held a Lynwood Knight close to the bag. 8.) With a swing like that, Buddy Williams may never make the cover of Sports Illustrated, but he did make contact with the ball. 9.) Blocking the plate effectively, Don catcher Vern VanderSluis lowered the boom at home plate. 10.) Ron Byrum easily fielded a pop-up, as Matt Gardner raced in for backup.

CLUBS/ORGANIZATIONS

Playing Politics

Improved student awareness and better student/administration communications were major goals of this year's Associated Student Body Cabinet. Starting the year off with a new Activities Director and many new members, the Cabinet was busy before the start of school planning first week activities and most of all, Spirit Week. But after a busy and exciting Spirit Week activities still would not slow down. The pancake breakfast was next, followed by ASB dances, assemblies, candy sales, Donkey Basketball, McDonalds competition against Gahr, The KEZY Noonies, Faculty Follies, Nominating Convention, and finally, to end the year, the second annual "Almost Anything Went." Along with each activity went a lot of planning and working together to make each event a success.

Informer Inches in on Ink Immortality

Financial Troubles Fail to Halt Newspaper Staff

Walking through the Social Science building during lunch on a Friday afternoon you could hear singing from the One Way Club. Three times a week they got together to have fellowship with other Christians. Mike Byrd from Calvary Chapel, Santa Ana, came to talk and have Bible studies with them on Mondays. Wednesday was a relaxed time just to talk and share experiences. Guest speakers were on the agenda for some of the meetings. The club got together after school for such things as picnics and concert trips. You could see a glow on each face of the club members who are proud to be Christians.

Deciding what to get for lunch, writing about school events, laying out pages and trying to find lost copy was part of the situation comedy that also posed as the fearless 1977 Informer staff. For most of the school year the newspaper staff was trying to raise funds to publish the school paper which was a monthly issue. Behind the scenes were Chief Editors Gay Arakawa, and Steve Adelizi, along with Randy Economy (Sports) and Evelyn Grimm (Editorial), each responsible for one page. With all the fun and troubles the staff was able to inform the students and put out several outstanding issues, including three 8-pagers.

Newly formed Los Unidos Club had a goal of raising money for college scholarships for Mexican-American students. Mrs. Thersa Torres, the advisor, organized club meetings each week to discuss fund raising activities which included a Mexican dinner, car wash, car show, and the sponsoring of a few dances.

The Model Rocketry Club was organized to provide an outlet for students having a scientific interest in jet-propulsion. Students visited the lab in Pasadena for a tour of the facilities, visited the laser-lab, rocket-lab, and bionics

A lot of people thought Darin Estrin was not smart but he proved otherwise by competently watching Gay Arakawa search through the files. 5.) The Los Unidos Club. 6.) Model Rocketry Club. 7.) Smiling Serritos Singers Successfully Serenade Students

Between "Down down ups" and "Do do waas" this year's Chorale was busy planning and carrying out many different activities. Starting the year off with a tri-concert with Mayfair and Bellflower, Chorale members soon learned the busy schedule did not slow down. Next came the Christmas Concert and with that, Singing Christmas Cards. For two long days at school Chorale and Choir members delivered Singing Christmas Cards to students and teachers. Appearing on the top charts for hit singles were songs such as "Rudolph," "I'm Gettin' Nuthin' for Christmas," and "The Grinch." But after Christmas vacation came singing at the PTSA meeting, local junior high and grammar schools, and convalescent homes. The traditional trip to Leisure Life to share with senior citizens there was mutually appreciated. Next, the Spring Concert presented a variety of songs and memories of the year. Bringing the year to a close, many members held leading roles in the Spring Musical, "Fiddler on the Roof."

Thespians Turn in Top Theatrics

Never Too Late, Pygmalion, Fiddler

What did "Pygmalion," "Fiddler on the Roof," "Never Too Late," and the "Top Banana Contest" all have in common? Well, they were all presented by the Thespians. Thespians Troupe 2080, under the direction of Dennis Cox, again staged three successful plays: "Never Too Late," "Pygmalion," and the musical, "Fiddler on the Roof." The Thespians also splashed their way through spirit week with banana cream pies during the "Top Banana Contest."

1.) "Oh, Captain Bullet is just too wonderful," cried out Debbie Martinez who was overcome with emotion at the sight of the fearless and amazing advisor. 2.) "And for my next trick I shall tie my skate laces," announced Julie Hillstead to Elaine Grimm. Elaine paid little attention as her eyes were riveted on the members of the Sin Igual Roller Team which prepared to form the jam. 3.) Waiting for the right fella to come zooming around the bend was Tandia Winder, a long time Roller Derby groupie. 4.) Cerritos Cyclists Cruise to Championship

Donmen and Machines Combine for Moto Title

Flying dirt, sharp turns, awesome jumps, and rough competition from 90 other Southern California high schools did not bother the Cerritos High School Motocross Team. The team, sponsored by Mr. Chris Prats, rolled up an insurmountable amount of points by early spring and cruised through the rest of the season. Especially instrumental to the success of the team were Dee Tryon — expert, 1st place, Mike Magrann — junior, 1st place, Chris Robinson — beginner, 2nd place, Mike Eide — expert, 1st place, and Mike Kurashige — mini-beginner, 3rd place.

You don't have to be an American Indian to hold a pow wow: just be a member of the American Indian Club. The American Indian Club is a federally funded club that studies the philosophies, languages, artifacts, religions and the nature of different Native American tribes.

Activities of the club have included a 50/50 raffle and a trip to Arizona. The main goal of the American Indian Club was to better understand the American Indian and his culture.

The Cerritos High School Advanced Speech and Debate Team quickly established a new Cerritos High School tradition of academic excellence. The team received awards in every tournament they have entered by placing in the top 20th percentile of all competing speakers. This achievement could not have been accomplished without hard work from team members and the assistance of Mr. Dennis Cox, advisor. Essential to this outstanding feat were Tony Artuso who was awarded certificates of excellence in dramatic interpretation, humorous interpretation, and programmed reading. Kelton Tobler was bestowed a certificate of excellence for impromptu speaking and a first place trophy at the Lions Club Student Speaker Contest. Deeanne Terrell and Mauro Morales received certificates of superiority in Expository Speaking. Also, Stephanie Shadowens was given a certificate of excellence in dramatic interpretation.

There is old math, new math and there is Cerritos High School Math Club math which adds up to love. The Math Club has used its interest in mathematics to help lovelorn students and their bank accounts with a revolutionary idea in fund-raising — computer dating. The CHS mathematicians, under the guidance of Miss Lorraine Edson, have gone on field trips to Pomona for a math competition, and to the Anaheim Convention Center for a special mathematics presentation. The club also had a lecture on using the quadratic formula to program a computer.

Band Blew Beautiful Basin Blvd. Blues

Band Pride Joined With Don Pride

Band Pride joined with Don Pride as the 1976-77 Marching Band took the field for the third year under the direction of Mr. Gary Nouskajian. Along with filling the stadium with "Basin Street Blues," members filled the streets with the sounds of "British Eighth" as they competed in the Artesia and La Mirada Parades. The Big Black Music Machine continued to fill the trophy cases with field awards from Los Altos and Orange High half-time competitions, while entertaining many people at groundbreakings and dedications. Once again they marched through Magic Mountain and down Disneyland's Main Street for the fifth time in three years.

On field, the Dons responded to the directions of Drum Major David Navarrete as the Band Staff, consisting of President John Cruz, Vice-President Terry Spawton, Secretary Karen Kinnier, Treasurer Brenda Files, Librarian Cheryl Jennings, Assistant Drum Major Valerie Rogers, Flag and Banner Leaders Soyla Vilaseca and Pam Seary, Newsletter — Roanne Kaplan and Class Representatives, Ken Adams — Sr., Chuck Cecil — Jr., Brian Files — Soph, Bev Files — Frosh, and Publicity — Mike Tamashiro, planned fund-raisers for the band.

Moving the Pride indoors, it was the other band divisions that filled the air. Symphonic Winds and Concert Band used a traditional note with classical tunes such as "English Suite" and "Variation Overture" which earned them high ratings at festivals. It was Stage Bands I and II that played a funky note as they played at all home basketball games, filling the air with rhythm.

The Marching unit was completed by the Banner and Flag Girls. The girls worked hard all season helping to make the unit over 100 strong for the first time in CHS history. Band Pride helped to bring out Don Pride.

Shocked Sailors Sink Swiftly

Tough to Sail Upside Down

Ever tried sailing upside down? Sailing trips were made to Belmont Shore where the club's very devoted and skilled members like Steve Nicolas and Glenn Blummer dumped the 16 ft. Hobie Cat sailboat. It took most of the spectators to right the boat after it capsized. The club had access to two 14-ft. boats, two Wildfire Coronados and a sometimes upright Hobie Cat.

United Together. Boring? Do Disneyland, the Rose Parade, San Diego, picnics, a talent show, car washes, and basketball games sound boring? The main purpose of this club was to have fun. The club sponsored and participated in many different activities during the 1976-77 school year. Mr. Harold Cebrum and Mr. Joe Quarles served as advisors.

Slimy snails, burnt tongues, nausea, and twisted chopsticks were the result of the International Club's contribution to Spirit Week, along with the only float in the Homecoming March. Under the supervision of Mrs. Carol Stien and Mrs. JoAnn Yabrof, the club sold raffle tickets, Helen Grace Peanut Butter Bars, and buttons that said "Kiss me I speak _____ (choice of German, Japanese, French, Spanish). The club was always on the move, going to various places such as Knott's Berry Farm, bowling, ice skating, to a Multi-Cultural Day, and holding the annual banquet, this year at the La Cabana Restaurant.

1.) The United Together Club members. 2.) Gay Arakawa inspired thousands with fiery speeches. 3.) Radical Rowdy Rooters Raised Racket Regularly

Eyes bulging, frothing at the mouth, screaming at the sonic boom level. You guessed it . . . the Rowdy Rooters. With the purpose in mind of promoting spirit at athletic events, members were casually referred to by advisor Monta Armstrong as "CRAZY." The screaming meemies showed up at events to have fun. They succeeded.

Twelve foot deep snow, raging rivers, 20-foot bears and Bigfoot were some of the minor tasks the mountainmen and women of the Backpacking Club had to encounter when they headed out into the wilderness.

I got a bite!!! was the cry often heard among the Rod and Reel Club members. The club was active in both fresh and salt water fishing. They have been to Lakes Cascade, Pyramid, Silverwood and Skinner. Also, half-day trips from Seal Beach were taken. Mr. Garcia, the club's advisor, felt that the students' skills in catching fish had increased enormously since the club was first organized in October of 1976.

Riding Bike-a-thon, helping out the American Cancer Society, selling snow cones and pickles for needy charities or even playing a game of chess with a lonely senior citizen are some of the things that prove YGAD, Youth Gives a Damn, does give a damn.

1.) Always looking for attention were the Rowdy Rooters. 2.) Lions, tigers, and bears couldn't even scare the backpackers. 3.) The 76-77 Rod and Reel members were often caught playing hooky. 4.) Were th YGAD members really waiting for an old lady to help across the street?

Drill Teamers Diligently Tried Dynamic Tricks

Fulfilling and successful would describe a year of competitions and halftime shows involving the 1976-77 Drill Team. The squad placed second at the Artesia Parade, third at Los Altos, fourth at Orange High, took fifth place at Disneyland, and did a spectacular job at the La Mirada Parade. The drill team, which had 48 members, consisted of three small groups: dance, flag, and military. The military unit placed sixth at Disneyland among a great number of entrants. Drill Team members had a very successful turnout at their annual extravaganza, which for the first time was done with the band. Magic Mountain invited the drill team (and band) back for the second consecutive year to parade up and down the park along with four other high schools. For fund-raisers, the drill team sponsored the Christmas Dance, "Memories of Love," sold Helen Grace Easter Eggs, and sold individually wrapped candy. It was a very satisfying year under the supervision of new advisor, Ms. Marie Kornder.

1.) Was the varsity football team really that funny, or did Dana Pinheiro and Susan Taylor enjoy laughing at their own jokes? 2.) "How disgusting," thought Lorie Powers and Veronica Kwaak while Marisa Martinez thought, "Wow, I wish I could do that," as advisor Marie Kornder did a Russian strip-tease. 3.) Assistant leader Veronica Pensader, leader Carrie Young, assistant leader Karen Williams. 4.) This year the drill team went bananas as they traveled to split city. 5.) Even though this picture is in black and white, Veronica Pensader's face was a shade of bright red as she received a singing Christmas carol from one of her secret admirers. 6.) Scarce Snowfall Set Sad Skiers Sobbing

Many Trips Cancelled Due to Lack of Snow

Even though Ski Club was one of the largest clubs on campus, members couldn't do too much without snow this year. A dry land ski lesson for beginners, and a one day trip to Snow Summit with Artesia High were the only trips taken. Numerous trips were planned, but were also cancelled because of the lack of snow. Some skiers got in some downhilling in March and April on their own as the weatherman finally came through with some spring skiing conditions. The club had a car wash and participated in the all-school candy sale for money-raisers. Their advisor was Mr. Jim Painton, who has denied that he doesn't know the difference between a slalom and a salmon.

CSF Members Tutor; Prepare for College

The band supplies tooters, but who do you suppose supplies tutors? The California Scholastic Federation, that's who. Not only do members lend academic help to those in need of it, they also give exciting awards. And now if you'll hand us the envelope containing the names of this year's first-ever winner of the prestigious CSF Member of the Year Award to be given annually to the club member contributing most to CHS . . . thank you. And the winner of this exciting award is . . . look over on the honors page. It's not far away.

CSF members have sponsored a bake sale to raise money for their annual picture and have gone to Disneyland. CSF eligibility was based on the preceding semester grades.

The Key Club doesn't help old ladies cross the street or sell Girl Scout cookies, even though they are a service club. The Key Club does, however, help usher at plays and sponsors activities to raise money for different charity organizations. This year Key Club sponsored a canned food drive during the Christmas season and held its annual mistletoe sale.

Cheerfulleaders Chant "Charge!" for CHS Champs

FRIENDSHIPS BUILT BONDS FOREVER

Football games, pep rallies, basketball games, competition, wrestling matches, baseball games, track meets. All these events had the total support of 18 spirited girls, also known as the Pep Squad. Working all summer on ordering uniforms, learning cheers, painting posters, and planning rallies, each girl learned of the time, dedication, disagreements, and hassles behind the "glory" of being a cheerleader. But accomplishments made the year worthwhile. More rallies than ever before gave the Dons a boost of spirit. Posters were made for each guy on the football, basketball, wrestling and baseball teams, along with posters around school and run-through posters for the games. It was a year of fun and fascination, but also a year of learning and growing.

Building terrariums and planting plants, flowers and baby trees in gardens and greenhouses was the scene in Horticulture Club. The purpose being to get familiarized with occupations in the world of green thumbs. Money for going to places like Catalina Island, Irvine Park, Magic Mountain, and camping in the mountains was raised through car washes, paper drives, selling home-grown plants at swap meets, and through carnation sales. The club's advisor was Mr. Bruce Squires.

Flying fingers couldn't be missed last April when the FBLA Club had its annual type-a-thon for eight long nail-breaking hours. FBLA stands for Future Business Leaders of America, whose advisors were Mrs. Mary Boston and Mrs. Marilyn Corbin. Scholarships were given to a number of business students who qualified for them with strong recommendations and good grades. Magic Mountain and tain and Knott's Berry Farm were two activities trips taken this year.

All through the community you could see Keywannettes walking from door to door collecting money for the March of Dimes. This was only one of the services this club performed for our city. As a great service club to both CHS and the community, the Keywannettes, sister club to the Key Club, is a branch of the Kiwanis, the Artesia-Cerritos community service club. The club's advisor was Mrs. Joy Yamada. From bake sales to ever-popular car washes, these girls used their club money to go to places like San Diego, Magic Mountain, and Catalina Island.

Ichiban Interesting, Intriguing and Involved

We're beginning to get the idea that the Ichiban Club loved to participate in nerd bowls, after they had to go through three of them and probably more. Ichiban is Japanese for "number one." This year was the first for the club, formed by advisor, Mrs. Joy Yamada. The club is just for enjoyment. Money was raised through a car wash, a fortune cookie sale, a rice candy sale and through the all-school candy sale. With this money members went to Magic Mountain and had a bowling tournament.

Have you seen Saturn lately? If you want to, and who doesn't?, you should join the Astronomy Club. It's really fascinating when you can stand on Mt. Wilson, look through a telescope, and see one of the most unusual planets in the Milky Way. Visiting planetariums, Joshua Tree National Forest, and meeting with UCLA Astronomy Club members in order to use more expensive telescopes were some of the other interesting and fun things the club did. Advisors Mr. Ernie Treiber and Mr. Tom McNally taught many things to members who found they liked life through a lens. The club's two money raisers this year were a pen sale and the all-school candy sale.

"Brownies, cupcakes, or cookies anyone?" asked various members of the Home Economics Club at one of its scrumptious bake sales. Its cookbook sale and Christmas Botique were also popular attractions that successfully raised the club money to go to the Lawry's factory, to the beach and Christmas parties. Even though advisor Mrs. Susie Pendleton can't cook or sew and gets jittery when she gives speeches, she says the club's purpose is to let students become aware of careers in home economics and to develop leadership. Just kidding, she can do all that tricky stuff.

Marching in parades, firing at rifle matches, and starving at bivouacs are some exciting and sometimes difficult duties that the Cal Cadets were involved in. Out of six rifle matches, Cerritos' cadets have won five of them with their five- and ten-men teams and their color guard flag display, which is also included in the competition. One of their survival bivouacs, in April, for four days and three nights, was held at Camp Pendleton. The California Cadet Corps is a military science class which prepares young people for the armed forces. This year there were four girls among the 41 members. For their money-raisers, car washes and a 50 mile bike-a-thon were held to buy new rifles for the rifle teams.

Photographers Phrantically Phocused on Phrightfully Phunny Pholk

This year a portion of the credit for the fine photography in the 1976-77 Sin Igual is due to Steve Adelizi, Dave Garrett, Dave Telles, and their advisor Mr. Richard Caldwell. An outstanding job was turned in by this trio of students who also produced the colorful slide-show at the yearbook sales assembly. They shot and coordinated the large number of pictures that flashed on the two screens in the gym — no small task. They all gave much of their time, effort, and talent on a variety of tough assignments to catch those once-in-a-lifetime action shots and expressions on students' faces that make yearbooks so special. The 1976-77 yearbook staff thanks these photographers.

1.) David Garrett beamed happily when they finally let him have film in his camera when he was sent on assignments. 2.) Let's not have any fuzzy prints," said Mr. Caldwell just before this fuzzy print was forwarded to annual staff. 3.) David Telles checked his camera settings before shooting some baseball action. 4.) If Steve Adelizi paid attention to his film like he did to his girlfriend he'd have never lost all those negatives.

SIN IGUAL

Staffers Screamed Sorrowfully, Soliciting Sympathy

1.) Glenn Tso couldn't wait to show Joy Oyzon his fantastic layout. 2.) See what happens when you're an annual staff advisor for three years? 3.) Who said you need brains, talent and good looks to be on annual staff — look at Randy Economy. 4.) A lot of staffers felt that Tom Hernandez headed up the sports section with the same skill with which he roller skated. 5.) Dena Mobley and Cindy Harju were unable to sleep nights unless they were certain they'd selected exactly the right photos for their pages. 6.) Angela Shumsky bet onlookers a shetland pony that she could pull the entire staff around the rink at sixty miles per hour.

"Did the Gahr game pictures ever come in?" "Sell ads or eat beans!" "Color deadline March 11. Yuck!" "I hate brainstorming!" "Get busy." "Whoever said that annual staff was all bright lights and glamour?" These were some of the expressions often heard by the members of the 1976-77 Sin -Igual Staff. The goals of the staff were to put out an annual with more color, better pictures, more interesting designs, and a book that students would be proud of and want to buy. The biggest problem the staff encountered was working with a different photography studio and in coming up with a workable theme. Staffers often became frustrated waiting for pictures, and the pictures that came back weren't necessarily the ones they wanted. Another problem the staff had to overcome was how the senior picture layouts would be accepted by the student body. With the assistance of Mr. Bill Milne, Taylor Publishing Company representative, Mr. Pat Stewart, advisor, and Nancy O'Connor, Editor-in-Chief, these problems were eventually brought under control. The staff worked hard to reach the year's goals, overcoming hardships to produce the Sin Igual. An annual without equal.

TEACHERS/ACADEMICS

Participating Principal Promoted Pounds and Pounds of Pupil Pride

Charles Ledbetter: An Involved Leader; Redfern Continues Reign as Zone C Czar

As Principal of Cerritos High School, Mr. Charles Ledbetter has given the leadership to make Cerritos one of the best in the state. Mr. Ledbetter, formerly a teacher and coach at Norwalk High School and Assistant Principal of Gahr High School, was born in Fullerton and went to Fullerton High School. The overall attitude of the students is what he likes best about our school. More student involvement in extra-curricular activities is what Mr. Ledbetter would like to see more of at Cerritos. The unanimous opinion of all the administrators was the wish for students to demonstrate their pride in our school by keeping the campus cleaner. When asked what his future goals were, Mr. Ledbetter said, "To do the best job I possibly can as principal of Cerritos High School."

Mr. Willard Redfern is the administrator of zone C in the ABC School District, which includes Cerritos High, Carmenita Jr. High, and seven elementary schools. He has met with many principals in the area during the year and evaluated them on the future goals that they had set for themselves before the school year began. In addition, he gave assistance in coordinating solutions to problems the school might have had and was often a visitor on the Cerritos Campus. Many a time he encouraged students in the quad to join him in the exhilarating Zone C spellout. "Give me a Z. . ."

1.) Nervoulsy twisting his class ring as he waited for his turn to speak at graduation was Mr. Charles Ledbetter. 2.) Mr. Willard Redfern smiled big when he learned that Kojak's ratings were still up. 3.) Mr. Ledbetter quickly memorized his lines for the Faculty Follies. He played Arthur Fonzarelli (the Fonz) in the Sappy Days skit. 4.) During his graduation talk Mr. Ledbetter reminded parents and friends not to crack their chewing gum during the ceremony. 5.) Performing one of the more pleasant duties of being a principal, Mr. Ledbetter escorted last year's homecoming queen Vicki Lourenco. Kathy McDougall and Terri Taylor looked on, admiring the precision marching. 6.) Mr. Ledbetter took a moment to tell the audience how proud he was of the students of Cerritos High during the Underclassmen Awards Night.

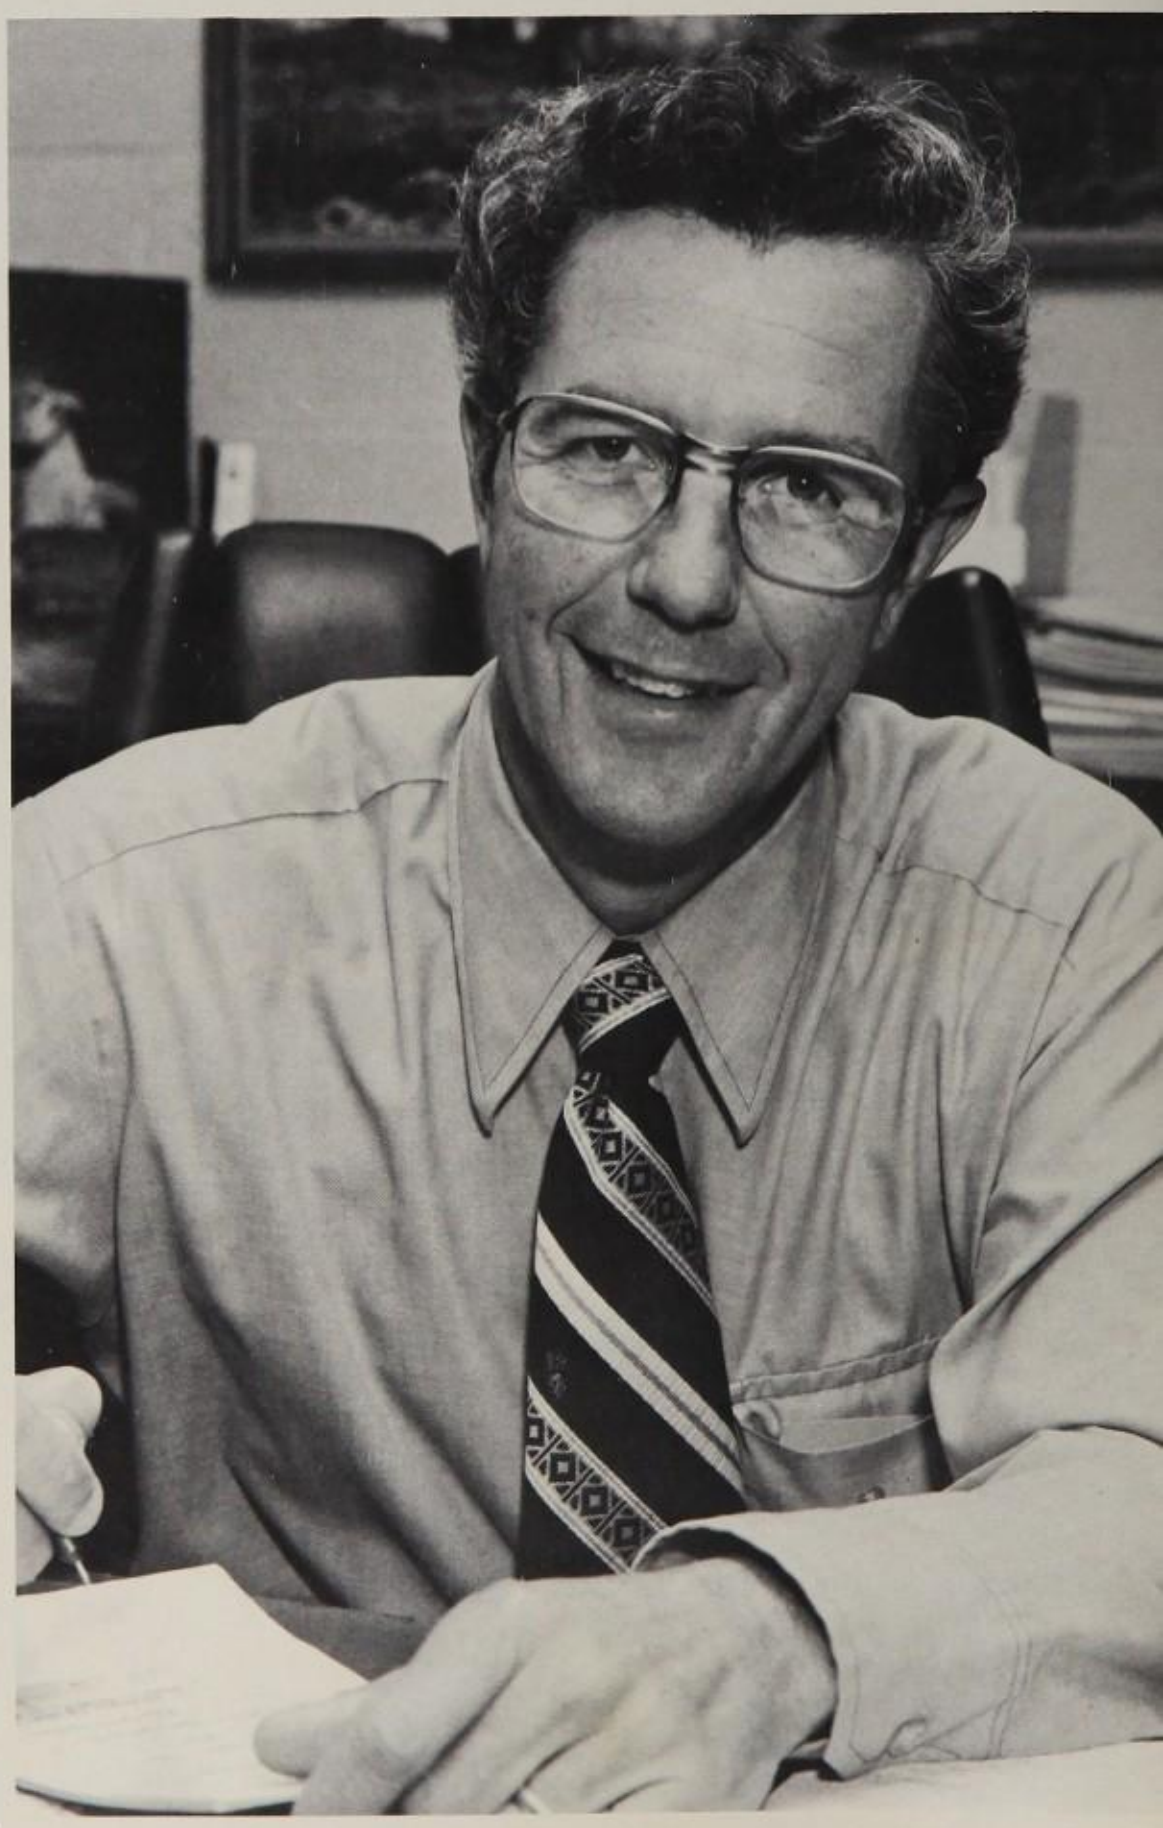
Administrators Admittedly Adore and Admire Adolescents

Mr. Bob Burdick, Assistant Principal of Special Services, was born in Newport Beach, California. He likes the educational atmosphere of Cerritos and the way teachers, students, and the staff work together. His future goals for Cerritos are to make it the best high school in the Southland.



Mrs. Norma Lee Elliot was Assistant Principal in charge of Counseling Services. She has put her loyalty, time and effort into making Cerritos High School a school of which everyone can be proud. Born in Missouri, Mrs. Elliot taught at Anaheim High School. She wishes to stay at Cerritos until it is time for an early retirement.

As Dean of Students, Mr. George Richardson, below, was the one to remedy the dirty deeds of Cerritos High School. He took care of the discipline of the students. Born in Minneapolis, Mr. Richardson did his teaching at Los Angeles High School. He finds the students friendly and co-operative and his co-workers congenial. Future plans for Mr. Richardson are to continue his work in education.

Assistant Principal of student services, Hal Conley pictured above, was born in Los Angeles and attended Whittier High School and Whittier College. His teaching career has included fifth grade, junior high, John Glenn High School, and Richard Gahr High School. Mr. Conley has put a lot of time and energy trying to get the school off to a good start. He works with students and parents trying to work out their individual problems and has come to the realization that "You can't save them all." Mr. Conley likes working with high school students and feels that "If you don't like kids you shouldn't be in this business." We are happy to say that Mr. Conley would rather be an Assistant Principal here at Cerritos High than be a Principal at just any high school.

Bernie,
It sure is a joy seeing you in class. I really am glad to know you. Have a good year and I will see you around school.
Friends always
Laura Olvera

World of Workers Whistled Warmly

Bootleggers, Flappers, Cake-eaters, Hitler, Sundances, Impeachment, Boston Tea Party, and Betsy Ross. These were a few of the topics discussed in the eleventh grade social studies classes. Students were also able to actually enjoy, as well as learn about, our Native Americans, events of WWII, American Revolution, and Elections.

The seniors were offered subjects such as civics, urban problems, consumer economics and California History, while the freshmen studied social problems, personal adjustment, US Geography, psychology, local government, and careers.

Want training for a job? The World of Work building is where it all happens. Typing, Shorthand, and Office Procedures were among the many classes offered for future secretaries and office workers. Drafting, electronics, woodworking, metal shop, and mechanics were classes that mainly interested the boys (even though there were some girl mechanics this year.) The Cerritos Hilton gave students the opportunity to see how a restaurant is run and they took turns doing the different jobs in the restaurant field while providing good food for the student body and faculty. Children were kept busy under the supervision of pupils in the Child Care class with many activities and crafts. The student store, The Touch of Don, gave the school access to a small general store and students were in charge. Many students left the building with enough skills to go into the real world of work.

Learning, Literature and Language Left Us Loony

More theorems, formulas, phylums, proofs, or conjugated verbs than you ever dreamed of could be found in the Math/Science building. The math department offered many mind-boggling courses such as Algebra I, Algebra II, Geometry, and Math Analysis. For those who preferred to have their minds less boggled Math for Adults was also offered. The Science Department offered many interesting courses such as Biology, Chemistry, Earth Science, Health, Oceanography, and Physics. Learning to communicate in Spanish, French, Japanese or German was easy, thanks to the International Language Department. The Math/Science Building was an interesting and often times fun place to learn. Some students' heads swirled.

The Fine Arts Building was the place for people with artistic talents. Those who had an ear for music could take Beginning Band, Stage Band, Concert Band, Symphonic Winds, Marching Band, Chorale, Girls' Glee, Choir, Creative Music, and Guitar. For those who had a flair for getting up in front of people or those who liked working behind the scenes, Drama I, Theatre Workshop, and Stage Crew were also offered. In addition, for those who had a knack for making things take form, the Fine Arts Building also offered ceramic and art classes.

The English Department was a place full of variety. The freshmen and sophomores had English I and II which included the teaching of basic grammar and composition and some different electives, such as speech. The juniors and seniors had their freedom to select two of the following semester courses: Shakespeare, Bible as Literature, Mythology, Speech, or Independent Study. A new offering was a one year course entitled Traditional English. This course taught the fundamentals of English in very basic fashion.

Portables and PE Proved Particularly Positive

For the juniors and seniors things were quite different this year. They were able to choose first of all whether or not they wanted to take PE and secondly what they wanted to take. They were offered such classes as volleyball, tennis, weight lifting, and softball. As for the sophomores and freshmen, they took what they were given whether they liked it or not. But things weren't that bad, they were able to get as fit as little fiddles through flag football, basketball, weight training, hockey, and softball.

This year with the two new portable classrooms built there were many classes offered in these buildings. Horticulture gave students the opportunity to work with different kinds of plants and to work with the soil. Career planning suggested to the student different fields of work that they could go into after graduation while Cal Cadets was for guys and girls who wanted to learn responsibility and to become familiar with military procedure. For people who spoke Portuguese and were trying to learn English as a second language or vice versa, there was the Portuguese class. Portuguese culture was learned along with teaching of the language. For those people just dying to get their driving permit there was Safety class. The first quarter teachers taught First Aid and other safety precautions. The second quarter involved the rules of driving.

1.) With a quick flick of her head, Suenell Vanderham showed off her new haircut. 2.) Carefully examining one of the many plants in Horticulture were Jody Rose and Lisa Bustos. 3.) Filomena Azevedo was able to make excuses in two languages as to why she didn't know the answer to a question in her Bilingual Portuguese class. 4.) Mark Wiener was diligently listening to a talk that Mr. Drulias was giving. He was barely able to restrain himself from vaulting out of his seat and shouting "Eureka!" 5.) Bert Rojas had a sick look on his face after he took a bite out of his homework. 6.) With a terrific leap of darn near three inches straight up, Joey Vasquez coaxed the ball toward the enemy's side. 7.) Showing off her great throwing arm was Janna Fagaragan as she fired the mushball to first. 8.) Neomi Armas was carefully bandaging her friend's arm as an assignment for Safety. 9.) "What are you up to, Sneaky?" asked Chuck French as he practiced a technique learned in Student and the Law.

Secretaries Served Strenuously to Solve Serious Situations

What goes on behind the scenes is what makes Cerritos High one of the top high schools anywhere. The positions of counselor, secretary, Activities Director, and nurse are probably some of the most thankless but necessary jobs here at Cerritos. The office was always crowded at snack and lunch with students waiting to talk to their counselors about anything from schedule changes to their college plans. Phyllis Brewer, Colleen Rogers, Teresa Torres, Harold Cebrun, and John Richards always had in mind thoughts of students' grade point averages, their number of credits, or problems concerning new incoming students. Head counselor Norma Lee Elliot kept the whole counseling office running smoothly and was always there with a smile and a kind word. Mr. Dennis McReynolds, as Director of Activities and Athletic Director, was constantly on the go coordinating sports activities and special events. His job did not end at 3 o'clock every day, as many of his afternoons and evenings were spent at either sporting events or activities, supporting our school in every way. Judy Dolan was a big assistance to Mr. McReynolds and kept the Activities Office from becoming mass confusion, as she also handled the student body financial accounts. The organization of the secretaries kept their bosses' lives a lot easier and the paperwork from piling up on their desks. Jean Hill, secretary to Mr. Ledbetter, Marge Marcum, secretary to Mr. Burdick, and Ann Gregory, secretary to Mr. Richardson, were always willing to give any help to the students that was necessary. Counseling secretaries Ann Burnstein, Bernice Davis, and Roselyn Goodrich typed schedule changes and mountains of other paperwork for the counselors. Sharon Benoche kept the Attendance Office in shipshape condition while Nurse Grace Albertson made sure the troops were in good physical condition. And to all of these the students of Cerritos High say a big "Thank You."

1.) Attendance secretary Sharon Benosche. 2.) Counselors. Phyllis Brewer, John Richards, Norma Lee Elliot, Harold Cebrun, Teresa Torres, Colleen Rogers. 3.) Nurse Grace Albertson. 4.) Counseling secretaries Ann Burnstein, Bernice Davis, Roselyn Goodrich. 5.) Secretaries. Jean Hill, Marge Marcum, Ann Gregory. 6.) Activities Clerk Judy Dolan. 7.) Director of Activities/Athletics Dennis McReynolds.

Always willing to help students and teachers were the Cerritos High School aides with smiles on their faces at that. Keeping the locker rooms smelling fresh and running smoothly were the gym attendants Diane Wierenga and Norm Bradbury. Teachers Aides were always on the go with hectic duties like running resource centers, correcting tests, and running machines in the math, social science, English, world of work, and EH buildings. Always on the alert for any suspicious foul play were the noon aides, Marion Miranda, Mike Woods, and Walter McNutt. Thank you to all of these helpful people.

Swell Staffers Smilingly Supported School Services

Members of the aides and services staff could never be found frowning as they passed the help around. Whistling while they worked were the Custodians who kept the campus beautiful. The speed lines were truly speedy as they were run by the efficient food service ladies. To help students with their jobs through the Regional Occupation Program and other services were Career Center Workers Lyn Morgan and Gary Welch. IMC Clerks were kept busy with jobs such as librarianship, audio-visual cataloging, and keeping the students quiet during study times. Media Specialist Tony D'Alessio supervised a number of programs and media courses. Cerritos High couldn't have made it without the help of these people.

Sin Igual Staff 1976-77

During the last couple of weeks of school while we were finishing up the yearbook, I started thinking about the things that had happened during the past year.

We started off the year with the Steak and Hot Dog Ad Selling Contest. Terri O's team won over Nancy O's. Mr. Stewart decided he would be on the winning team so he could scarf down a big juicy steak. The thing I'll never forget was how quiet everyone was at the party; because they were sure never quiet in class.

Then there was the BLESSED EVENT of Kharis Stewart being born into this world and the many weeks following when we saw numerous pictures of Kharis taken by the proud daddy, Mr. Pat Stewart.

Probably the most memorable and funniest experience was our roller skating party where Captain Bullet made his fearless appearance. We spent half an hour lost in Bellflower. But as soon as we got there everyone rushed out on the floor and after a while some people did some wonderful tricks. However, those who had never been roller skating before ended up being held up most of the evening.

The more serious side of the year was putting the annual together. I know we have all gained an overwhelming appreciation for the Sin Igual. We put countless hours of hard work and dedication into producing volume VI for Cerritos High. We can be very proud of our outstanding 77 pages of color, new section (fads and fashions) and our new layout designs. We could have never done it if we hadn't all worked together to produce the book. I'd like to thank Terri Obando (assistant editor) for all the hard work she put into the book. Terri brought in most of our new layout designs. She also spent a lot of her time helping others with their work. Business Manager Lee Coduti also spent many hours with the financing of the book; billing and rebilling our advertising patrons. And to all our advertisers and patrons, thank you for supporting us. We really appreciate it.

The staff and I would like to especially thank Sanford Studios for putting up with us and for all the outstanding quality photography you've done for us.

Many thanks to Mr. Caldwell, Dave Garrett, Steve Adelizi and Dave Telles for their hard work and sometimes fantastic photography, even though we didn't always get along.

Jeff Jackson did the outstanding artwork on our endsheet and I'd like to thank Jeff and wish him our best because he has so much talent.

Mr. Bill Milne (our Taylor Publishing Company representative) gave us prompt and dedicated service. I'd like to thank him for his support.

And to our advisor, Mr. Stewart, thank you for all the work, dedication and time you've put into the book. By continously pushing us to think of and try new ideas we've produced the best book in the history of Cerritos High. Not many people would put the time and help you've put into producing this annual. It's greatly appreciated by me and the rest of the staff.

And last, but certainly not least, to the 1976-77 Sin Igual staff, thank you for your time, your ideas, your creativeness and your dedication. You're a special group of people. Producing this book was just the beginning of opening your many gifts.

To all who have bought this book: thak you for supporting us. We've produced the book for you, and have had a lot of fun, as well as frustration, in the process. If it weren't for you we could never have made this year's annual possible. I hope you enjoy it.
